Traffic Rolls Across Midland Bridge

MARKING A MILESTONE in development of Western Beaver County, the snip of a ribbon sent the first traffic across the new Midland-Shippingport Bridge late this morning. A gigantic pair of shears was wielded in the ribbon-cutting rite, observed by mayors of area communities. Mayor Eli Corak of Midland is second from right. Five hundred attended the ceremony despite cold weather and slippery highways.

The first traffic rolled across the $3.8 million Midland-Shippingport Bridge today after a colorful dedication ceremony in which representatives of seven Western Beaver County communities participated.

Wilbur C. Webb, chief deputy secretary of the Pennsylvania Dpeartment of Highways, heralded the soaring 1,613-foot span as another milestone in the Upper Ohio Valley's development in an address that preceded a ribbon-cutting ceremony.

About 500 attended the ceremony, which was cut short because of the cold, blustery weather.

A contractor's representative said the bridge may not be ready for general use until about another day's work is finished.

Aerial bombs crashed in salute before the first traffic crossed the bridge.

The ribbon-cutting ceremony brought together Mayors William Cromer of Georgetown, Donald Laughlin of Hookstown, W. B. MacBride of Industry, Elmer R. Gifford of Ohioville, Gerald Rogers of Shippingport and Eli G. Corak of Midland and Councilman Daniel Gallagher of Glasgow.

The dedication rite was held on the Midland side of the Ohio River on the small overpass before the bridge proper.

A Coast Guard color guard from Pittsburgh participated in a flag ceremony. Cmdr. O. F. Sturdy, officer in charge of marine inspection and captain of the Port of Pittsburgh, was in charge of the detachment.

The Coast Guard vessel "Poplar" and its 16-man crew tied up at the Humble Oil Co.'s Midland pier.

Col. James E. Hammer, district engineer of the Pittsburgh Army Corps of Engineers detachment, was represented by Lt. Col. Bruce W. Jamison, deputy disrtict engineer.

Many Midland, Western Beaver and South Side High School students, including band members, watched or participated in the ceremonies.

Charles P. Henderson of Industry, South Side High School principal, headed the committee in charge of the dedication.

The dedication rite was followed by a buffet luncheon for honored guests at The Willows Motel in Industry.

The opening of the span marked fulfillment of the dreams of many generations past—providing a quick, convenient link between the north and south sides of the Ohio in Beaver County. The new bridge is the only highway span across the Ohio between East Liverpool and Rochester-Monaca.

Ground was broken in ceremonies May 7, 1962, on the Shippingport side. Although some work remains to be done, the bridge was virtually complete many months ahead of schedule. The completion had been set for September 1965.

The bridge links Route 68 with Route 168. The project is about a mile and a half long.

On the Midland - Industry side, there is an interchange on Route 68 which includes two 12-foot lanes east for about 900 feet and two 12-foot lanes west for about 1,400 feet.

Where the bridge ends on the Shippingport side, a 2,100-foot road connects with Route 168.

The six-span bridge, with approaches in Industry and Shippingport, crosses the Ohio on four piers and is about a half-mile east of Midland.

The state awarded contracts for the bridge, approaches and superstructure in 1962.

W. P. Dickerson & Son, Inc., principal contractor, began work in 1962.

Rusk Meets Russian On U.N. Crisis

Session May Bring Solution To Money Owed By Moscow

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko had a luncheon date today which might — or might not — be the turning point in the crisis over financing the United Nations.

U.S. diplomats guessed that Gromyko, in his first appearance here since the new regime took over in Moscow, would agree to financial discussions rather than force a showdown at the opening of the General Assembly's 1964 session Tuesday.

But suspense remained high for even with a "yes" from Gromyko, the precarious gentleman's agreement proposed by Secretary - General U Thant could collapse because of objections by other U.N. members.

Immediately at issue is application of the U.N. Charter's Article 19, which says any member more than two years behind in its dues shall have no vote in the General Assembly.

Because the Russians have refused to pay for U.N. peacekeeping costs, they have now fallen more than two years in arrears. The United States says the United Nations will lose its

Rebel Forces May Have Shot At Craft Approaching Field

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — A chartered Belgian DC4 crashed on the runway of Stanleyville airport Sunday night, killing the crew and all but seven of the refugees it was bringing to safety, reports to Leopoldville said.

A message reaching Leopoldville this morning said the plane "got fire on taking off." It was not clear whether this meant that the plane had been hit by rebel riflemen who still infest the region around the airport at Stanleyville.

An employe of the charter company, Belgian International Air Services, said the DC4 had a crew of three Belgians. It was not known how many passengers were aboard.

An official of the company in Antwerp, Belgium, said the plane was believed to have carried 40 passengers.

An investigating team was flying to Stanleyville this morning.

Most of the plane's passengers were reported to be Congolese refugees from the former rebel capital.

In the last few days, several planes have been unable to land in Stanleyville because of rebel ground fire. Belgians who returned from Stanleyville Sunday night said the region between the airport and the center of the city about two miles away was heavily infiltrated by rebel snipers.

Beyond the airport, the rebels are in almost full control. The airport is guarded by Congolese soldiers who took over when Belgian paratroopers were withdrawn Sunday after rescuing 1,700 foreigners from the rebels.

Roads Glazed As First Real Snow Strikes

Flurries Expected To Continue With Ash Crews Busy

The first real snow of the season glazed streets and highways throughout the Tri-State District this morning, causing monumental traffic snarls in many areas.

But the weatherman indicated the worst of the mild storm has passed, although flurries can be expected tonight and Tuesday.

A sudden drop in temperatures accompanied the snow. The mercury may dip as low as 5 degrees in some areas tonight, the forecaster said. The thermometer hit 20 in the suburbs this morning. Downtown East Liverpool had a low of 23 at 5 a. m.

Regions close to Lake Erie are in for heavier snow. The weatherman said there will be occasional heavy squalls through Tuesday in Lake, Geauga and Ashtabula Counties, part of the "snow belt" along the lake shore.

Ashing crews throughout the area were busy before dawn

Woman, 82, Dies As Auto Crashes

An 82-year-old Salem woman was killed Sunday afternoon at 3:30 when the car in which she was a passenger plunged over an embankment at the intersection of County Rd. 440 and Route 14 eight-tenths of a mile east of Columbiana.

The victim was Mrs. Laura B. Loop of Cleveland St., Salem, who suffered a crushed chest and other injuries. She was a passenger in a car driven by Bertha M. Phillips, 83, of 250 S. Lincoln St., Salem.

It marked the 26th traffic fatality in Columbiana County this year, compared with 28 in the same period last year.

The State Highway Patrol at Lisbon said Mrs. Phillips lost control of the car while on County Rd. 440 about 60 feet from the intersection. She failed to make a curve and the car went off the right side of the highway, striking a stop sign.

The vehicle continued through the intersection and over an embankment.

Mrs. Phillips suffered fractured ribs and lacerations of the chin and right wrist.

Moderate damage resulted to the car.

There were 10 other accidents over the weekend. Besides these, officers had reports of seven others since Sunday midnight, all caused by the snow-slicked highways.

Three were injured in a one-car crash Saturday night at 9:55 on Route 62 near Damascus.

Officers said a 1965 sedan driven by Larry Shultz, 21, of Alliance was damaged extensively when it rolled over three times in a ditch.

Crime In U.S. Shows 13 Per Cent Increase

WASHINGTON (AP) — Crime in the United States increased 13 per cent in the first nine months of 1964 compared to the first nine months of last year, the FBI said today.

The increase ranged from 20 per cent in the South to 12 per cent in the north-central states. The Northeastern states reported a 14 per cent increase and the Western states 13 per cent.

Man Injured Only Slightly In Car Plunge

An elderly city resident escaped with only minor bruises in a spectacular crash early this morning when his car went off the Chester-Newell Rd. and rolled down a 100-foot embankment.

Herbert H. Jolly, 61, of Clearwater, Fla., who resides in an apartment on Washington St., suffered only bruises of the nose and knee in the accident at 7 a short distance north of the Newell Bridge.

Grant District Constable J. Carl Durham of Newell, the investigating officer, said Jolly's 1963 car was almost halted in its slide on ice-slicked Route 66 before the car plunged over the sharp hillside.

Two passengers, a son of the driver and a jockey at Waterford Park race track, leaped to safety as the car slowed. Durham said the car must have rolled over a dozen times down the sharp hillside, coming to rest on the Pennsylvania Railroad tracks.

The accident happened on a section of the narrow highway where there is no guardrail and no trees which could have

Viet Nam Premier Urges End To Rioting In Saigon

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Premier Tran Van Huong appealed Sunday night for public support after paratroopers crushed another Buddhist demonstration against his month-old government.

Huong in a broadcast called on the people to help put down street demonstrations which he said were inspired by the Communists. He said his government would not permit Communist troublemakers to operate in Saigon.

Brig. Gen. Pham Van Dong, Saigon's military governor, charged in a communique that the Viet Cong definitely had been involved Sunday in the funeral procession for a Buddhist youth that turned into an anti-government demonstration. Police arrested 89 persons and said one of them had Viet Cong connections.

The Buddhist hierarchy, who have vowed to bring down Huong's government, charged that the government's show of force amounted to "direct provocation against unified Buddhists."

About 1,500 armed paratroopers clashed with about 2,000 demonstrators who had gathered for the funeral procession of the Buddhist youth. The Buddhists claimed the youth, Le Van Ngoc, 15, was shot by troops who broke up an earlier antigovernment demonstration.

Fighting broke out after the demonstrators protested the seizure of a truck in the procession. The army said it carried knives, clubs and grenades. The vehicle's occupants were arrested.

After the demonstrators refused to heed orders to disperse, the paratroopers arrived, swinging rifle butts. They fired two shots into the air, startling

Spacecraft Finds Right Star, Travels For Mars

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Spacecraft Mariner 4 finally found its guiding star today, and scientists said it was using the star to speed on toward an appointment with Mars.

Officials at Jet Propulsion Laboratory in Pasadena said that the second radio command sent to the craft today resulted in its finding Canopus — the bright orb it needs to hold it on course through a 7½-month, 325-million-mile voyage.

A first command sent at 1:13 a.m. made the craft lock on an object which data later revealed was not Canopus, scientists reported.

The second command was sent at 2:57 a.m., starting the craft rolling over in space, scanning the heavens for Canopus. Three minutes later it locked on a star.

Scientists said the data it then radioed back was analyzed, proving it locked on Canopus and not some other star.

They said two sensors are carried on the craft. When one of them is locked on Canopus, the other should be pointed toward earth. They said information received from the earth sensor indicated that it was indeed pointing toward earth.

At the time Mariner locked on Canopus it was 359,850 miles from earth and was traveling at 7,400 miles an hour, scientists said.

President Denies Report Hoover's Replacement Set

NEW YORK (AP) — Newsweek magazine said today that President Johnson has decided to replace J. Edgar Hoover as chief of the FBI.

The White House promptly denied it.

"The President never heard of such a plan and never heard of such an idea."

The magazine said Hoover "has become a figure of controversy — not merely to longtime leftish critics but among old admirers who wonder whether he has forgotten the motto on his desk."

The motto, inscribed on a small brass plaque: "Two feet on the ground are worth one in the mouth."

Hoover held one of his rare news conferences Nov. 18, in which he told women reporters that civil rights leader Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. is "the most notorious liar in the country." He also denounced the Warren Commission for its criticism of the FBI's role in the events preceding President John F. Kennedy's assassination.

Newsweek said:

"One such disenchanted fan (of Hoover's) is Lyndon B. Johnson who had decided by last week that he must find a new chief of the FBI. It was a tough decision."

Spices, Fruit Give Beef Continental Flavor

Americans love beef whether it's a roast, stew or a hamburger. Spiced and fruited chuck roast is a very particular kind of pot roast—all the flavorful goodness of a fork-tender pot roast with an appetizing continental flavor.

Combining fruit and spices with meats is done in many European countries, and once tasted, these combinations become favorites.

Spiced and fruited chuck roast combines cinnamon, mace, apricots, prunes and ginger ale with beef chuck. They're unusual ingredients to combine, but they produce a roast with a distinctive goodness not soon forgotten.

Chuck Roast

- 4 to 5-pound chuck roast
- 1/3 cup (firmly packed) brown sugar
- 2 teaspoons salt
- 1 teaspoon cinnamon
- ½ teaspoon mace
- 2 tablespoons shortening
- 1 cup chopped onion
- ½ cup water
- 1 bottle (7 ounce) ginger ale
- 24 dried apricot halves
- 18 dried prunes, pitted

Combine brown sugar, salt, cinnamon and mace; rub into both sides of roast. Brown meat slowly on both sides in shortening. Add onion, water and any remaining sugar-spice mixture.

Cover and cook over low heat until meat is tender, about 2 to 2½ hours. Combine ginger ale and fruits, and let stand while meat is cooking. Thirty minutes before end of cooking time, add ginger ale and fruits to meat. Yield: 8 servings.

Surgeon General Disclaims Jury's Tobacco Verdict

BAL HARBOUR, Fla. (AP) — U.S. Surgeon General Luther Terry says a jury that found cigarettes "reasonably safe for human consumption" decided a damage suit and did not repudiate the government's report linking smoking and lung cancer.

"I don't think the verdict changes the attitude of the advisory committee on smoking and health or the substance of its report," Dr. Terry told a news conference at the American Medical Association convention Sunday.

The family of Edwin Green of Miami sued the American Tobacco Co. for $1.5 million in damages, alleging that Green's death from lung cancer in 1957 was the result of 30 years of smoking Lucky Strike cigarettes.

A federal court jury, instructed to decide if cigarettes are reasonably safe and if not, to award damages, returned a verdict saying: "We find for the defendants."

Always use cold water to soak pans used for milk, egg, or cheese mixtures or flour batters.

A Gateway To Development

Today's formal opening of the Midland-Shippingport Bridge could have a tremendous impact on Western Pennsylvania and the Upper Ohio Valley.

The stage has been set for an extensive development program. New industries, new businesses, new residential areas and a general re-awakening are there for the making as a result of the majestic span across the Ohio River.

But the bridge alone does not mean the development will come to pass. Those in responsible portions in the communities directly or indirectly linked with it must be the moving force — with the support of the thousands of hard-working, energetic people who call the region home and who have helped build it to its present capacity.

There is little doubt that the challenge will be met. The pioneering spirit of the past cannot help but exert its influence and spur the level-headed planning needed for the present and for the future. The commendable area-wide cooperation that has marked other enterprises must be continued.

Progress in the upper valley as a whole means progress in the individual communities which make up the valley complex.

Another gateway has become available to the many resources which lie within reach. It is up to all to see that the opportunity is not wasted.

The Midland-Shippingport Bridge stands as the "Open Sesame" to a comprehensive development program with unlimited possibilities.

We Can Move On With Confidence

Thanks to the sound judgment of six of the seven members of Council, the city income tax has been continued.

This means that progressive planning can be carried on without fear of a sudden halt because of lack of funds. It also means there will be none of the crippling cutbacks in vital services which would have resulted had the revenue which the tax provides been cut off.

The legislation approved last week keeps the tax at eight-tenths of 1 per cent — 80 cents on each $100 of earnings and other income. To date in 1964, the tax has produced more than $288,000.

To all who have wrestled with a budget of one kind or another — and who hasn't —it should be clear that near chaos would have occurred had the $288,000 been eliminated. Fortunately, because of the 6-1 Council vote, such an emergency has been avoided.

The administration and the Council have a renewed obligation to the people who are paying the bill to be constantly alert that the tax money is put to the best possible use.

Benefits already have been realized and more are in the offing as East Liverpool goes about the exacting job of moving forward on all productive fronts.

Nothing Has Been Done

Nothing has been done since the Kennedy assassination to change the two circumstances discussed most fervently after the tragedy occurred.

There has been no progress in laws to make it tougher for irresponsible and dangerous people to purchase and own guns of the highly lethal type used by Lee Oswald.

This was no weapon for hunting small game but a military rifle that Oswald was able to buy with no questions asked and possess with no specific authority. Even firearms buffs drew in their horns after the assassination in Dallas and conceded that ownership and operation of a gun that could shatter a human head at long range was as worthy of official scrutiny as, say, ownership of an auto, or purchase of a few grams of some potentially harmful medical preparation.

Nothing has been done, either, about reckless exposure of the chief executive in places of obvious risk. President Johnson gave his countrymen nervous prostration during his campaign by setting himself up as a special target in crowds.

This drew a certain amount of grudging admiration for presidential bravery, but no admiration for presidential prudence. The United States had no vice president. It has none now, only a vice president-elect.

And in this connection, Congress has made no move to set up a succession in the event of presidential incapacity, a matter President Eisenhower insisted was a prime necessity. What if President Kennedy had survived the gun wounds inflicted in Dallas, but without possession of his mind? Who would have held presidential authority until the end of his term?

But when it comes to things that haven't been done, there have been no measures to regularize and restrain coverage by the news media of events like the assassination in Dallas. If it happened again, there would be the same unmanageable influx of reporters, photographers, radio and TV crews, magazine writers and so on.

In the ensuing hulabaloo another Jack Ruby would have no trouble squirming to his shabby destiny as a murderer.

Out of all the good intentions that rebounded out of the Dallas fiasco, not one has amounted to anything.

There is talk now of a bipartisan move in the next Congress to give all major party candidates and their families the same protection given an incumbent president and vice president and their families — but don't bet on that, either.

The FBI Has A Problem

If searching discussion took the place of scathing denunciation, the Federal Bureau of Investigation could clarify its position in Southern civil rights cases.

The FBI director, J. Edgar Hoover, is impatient because of what he believes are unjustified attacks on FBI personnel in the South. But in an official announcement, the FBI has revealed the frustration behind the attacks.

People do not understand that the FBI is a federal investigative agency, nothing else. It is not a national police force. It has no power of law enforcement. It has no authority over state and local police forces.

Its agents, it declares, know who killed the civil rights workers in Mississippi last June and who are the prime suspects in the 1962 bombing of the Birmingham church in which four Negro children were killed. So much for FBI efficiency as far as investigative work is concerned.

But the FBI can make no arrests until it has enough evidence to obtain convictions. With no hope of help from many Southern police departments in civil rights cases, the FBI is largely on its own. It might as well try to find out who wielded the clubs and fired the shots in a Congo massacre.

Awareness of its frustration is no comfort to Negro citizens who want justice to be done and cannot hope for satisfaction from local law enforcement. They expect the FBI to do more than it is empowered to do. They think it should be a national police department. It isn't.

It is a federal bureau of investigation, nothing more. Its information is available to the U.S. Department of Justice, but even then there can be no prosecution of wrong-doers, except at departmental discretion.

If Mr. Hoover blows his top sometimes in a mood of frustration, don't we all?

Letter From Max

By Martin Miller

Dear Truman Twill:

Two sure signs that winter is upon us: We had to get a new air filter for the furnace and the hose was left outdoors on the ground and is one long tube of ice.

You better check the gear on your skis and ice skates so you don't get caught unprepared. And oil that snowblower.

Ever notice how much farther you can see through trees after the leaves fall? One unsuspected benefit of this is that some mothers with school children can spot the early-morning school bus coming several blocks away, whereas it formerly was hidden from sight behind the leafy trees. Only someone who has experienced this can know what a boon this is.

Hunters are around again, but the rabbits appear to be scarce. Most plentiful game are hen pheasants, which are protected and illegal game anyway. That is always the way it is, isn't it — plenty of what you can't have.

Loyalty oaths haven't been in the news much lately, but if the subject ever comes up here is a pertinent quote from Aeschylus 525-456 B.C.: "It is not the oath that makes us believe the man, but the man the oath."

You and I were talking about foods awhile ago, and it reminded me of the fellow who used to have a bowl of chili and a malted milk for lunch, which seemed like a nice balance, tastewise.

Some of the new postage stamps are very picturesque but so large it is almost impossible to find space for them on a small envelope.

Remember the gold old days when the icebox didn't have to be defrosted?

That recent series of newspaper articles on movies being shown in airliners was another reminder of how far behind railroads have fallen in passenger appeal. Imagine choosing an airline flight on the basis of what film they are showing: Something to look forward to on your next vacation.

Here is the kind of prize information that startles me: Ho Chi Minh, the troublesome Communist president of North Viet Nam, was once pastry chef in the London Carlton and served under the noted Escoffier. He sure is whipping up an unpalatable batter now. How do you like that, from pastry chef to president?

Much has been written of the conglomeration of numbers assigned to us these days, such as seven-digit telephone numbers, Social Security numbers, auto licenses and so on. It isn't too much to hope that someday some brain will standardize the blooming things for us dunces so an individual's all numbers, including posta! Zip Code, will be the same, or just about the same and we will stand a chance of remembering.

Faithfully yours,
MAX

What Of The Future? Canadians Ask

By Max Harrelson

OTTAWA

When you journey across Canada today you find a country engrossed in self-examination. Its 19 million people are divided and disturbed over the future.

You find bitterness, name-calling, threats and sometimes violence. There are debates, seminars, editorials, floods of letters to newspapers and private discussions everywhere.

What is Canada? they ask. What does French-Canada want? Should Canada revise its constitution to give the provinces more authority? Should the traditional ties with the British crown be loosened, or broken?

Some of these problems are new. Others have worried Canadians, irritated them, and perplexed them over the years.

One, obviously, is Canada's proximity to the United States — a giant ten times as big in population, closely tied to Canada as an ally, deeply involved in the ownership of the country's industry and exporting U.S. culture in massive quantities to compete with Canada's own brand.

Canadians have a fierce national pride and they are trying hard to create a distinctive national image. Many have genuine fears that both their independence and their national personality may be snuffed out by what is intended as a friendly hug.

THERE ARE others who look across the border with envy at the higher wages paid by U.S. industry and at the lower cost of luxury items, such as automobiles, refrigerators and television sets.

A major complaint heard these days is that the Americans don't understand Canada and that they take Canada for granted.

Generally, however, Canadian-American relations have never been better. There has been a substantial improvement in the climate since the bitter anti-American attacks launched by former Prime Minister John G. Diefenbaker in the 1962 political campaign.

Within Canada there are grave political divisions, caused by the bicultural nature of the country. As one analyst said, French - Canada has finally emerged into the 20th century and is demanding a new and enlarged role in government.

The separatist movement in Quebec, while not extensive, has resulted in an English backlash in some parts of Canada. This has been reflected to some extent in the parliamentary battle over a proposed new maple leaf flag to replace the red ensign of the British Merchant Marine, now used as Canada's flag.

But the flag issue and the question of Canada's relationship to the British crown are not simply disagreements between British and French Canadians.

A writer, Frank Kelley, living in Edmonton, Alberta, wrote recently in Maclean's magazine:

"I think it's time someone asked the Anglophiles what it is, exactly, that Canada owes England and what, exactly, England did for us that should justify our allegiance to her flag."

A QUEBEC member of Parliament, Auguste Choquette, predicted that Canada will become a republic within 15 or 20 years.

This hardly seems likely, but there does appear to be a good chance that there will be a shift of power from the federal government in Ottawa to the 10 provincial governments.

One of the complicating factors in the political scene is the fact that the federal government is trying to resolve the country's constitutional crisis without a clearcut majority in Parliament.

This is one of the reasons Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson is likely to call for a new national election next spring — after only two years in office. He and his advisers feel that conditions are right for a big Liberal victory, despite the dangers of holding an election while emotions are so inflamed.

For one thing, Canada is in the midst of a tremendous economic boom. New buildings are going up everywhere, new industries are opening, retail buying is setting records and unemployment is at the lowest level since 1956.

Douglas Fisher of the New Democrat party sees the next five to 10 years as a make-or-break period for Canada.

He said the country has reached the stage where it must have a showdown, regardless of how divisive it might be.

"It might be good to get questions out in the open," he said. "It's time we had a real torture period. It's inevitable."

Computer Trend

By Raymond J. Crowley

Electronic Answer Eyed For Redistricting

WASHINGTON

The Founding Fathers, especially Thomas Jefferson, would be amazed; in fact, they probably would be shuddering.

Jefferson, an exemplar of 18th century enlightenment, was a man who believed human reason, if rightfully applied, could solve great social and political problems.

What would he find today? Statesmen beginning to abdicate reason's throne, beginning to turn their problems over to robots, to computers.

The trend, if it can be called one, was highlighted in Connecticut the other day. There the members of the state legislature were faced with what might seem a relatively simple problem, though one of immense importance.

The U.S. Supreme Court has ruled state legislative districts must be equal in population so far as practicable. This requires much revamping of most state legislatures.

In Connecticut, the Democrats control one house and the Republicans the other. They were unable to sit down, reason together and come up with a solution.

The deadlock got so bad the Nov. 3 election for the legislature was canceled. The old assembly is holding over.

A three-judge federal court, which has taken a great interest in the subject, finally appointed a special master to come up with a reapportionment plan in case the legislature continues to fail.

Who is the special master? Morris S. Davis, director of the Yale University Computer Center. His robots are green on the problem of reapportionment; they have been laboring hitherto on such subjects as linguistics and astronomy. But Davis expresses confidence they will meet this new challenge.

While Jefferson probably would shake his head over the failure of men to reason together, he would be vastly interested in computers. He was a great gadgeteer himself, an inventor.

He would rceognize at once that computers are only a sort of extension of the human brain. They cannot do anything the brain cannot do, only they can do it faster. Their output is only as good as the material fed into their maw.

Computer men have an adage: "Garbage in, garbage out."

Special master Davis does not intend to feed any garbage in.

"We hope," he said, "that we will be able to deliver an objective, nonpartisan system by approaching the problem as one of mathematics, rather than politics."

Suggestions have been made in other states, too, that computers rush to the aid of statesmen.

Speaking about New York, an official of the National Municipal League said: "There is no reason why in the state of New York a system of compact, contiguous districts, well balanced in population, cannot be set up within even a week's time.

"All it needs is people with a thorough knowledge of the process, technical help, computers and a conscience."

Conscience is, of course, exactly what computers lack; they have no emotions, no sense of compassion.

The MLF Controversy

By Geoffrey Gould

WASHINGTON

A new set of initials—MLF—is kicking up a controversy in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

MLF stands for multilateral force. It is a new concept in the handling of nuclear weapons, developed and pushed by the United States. Essentially, it is a way of permitting the United States' allies partial participation in the control of the nuclear deterrent.

To help understand what the fight is all about, here are some basic questions and answers about MLF:

Q. What is MLF?

A. It is a proposal for a separate force of surface ships, such as freighters, to be equipped with Polaris missiles with nuclear tips. The crews would be an international mixture from the participating nations. There would be 25 ships. A destroyer, the USS Ricketts, has been manned by a mixed crew recently to demonstrate how this can be done.

Q. Who would control them?

A. There would be an MLF commander, separate from the North Atlantic Treaty Organization command, which would retain its own forces. But in time of war, MLF would be an arm of NATO. Control of the weapons would be multinational, rather than in the hands of any one country. The United States alone could not decide to use them. Neither could any other one country.

Q. Why was this idea developed?

A. Many of the Allies have long wanted greater participation in the nuclear deterrent that is supposed to keep the Communists in check. The United States has always been against proliferation, or spread to many countries, of nuclear weapons. U.S. policymakers also figure that a major country like Germany, if it fails to get a share in atomic control, will build an independent nuclear force of its own. The MLF was designed to satisfy both requirements — non-proliferation and sharing by the Allies.

Q. Doesn't this amount to proliferation anyway?

A. American officials from Secretary of State Dean Rusk on down insist that it is not proliferation and in fact is actually a positive step against the spread of nuclear weapons. Critics say the opposite—that it would put more fingers on the nuclear trigger.

Q. Who wants this?

A. The United States and West Germany, primarily. Others taking part in talks include Italy, Greece, Turkey, the Netherlands and Great Britain.

Q. Who is against it?

A. France, which has developed its own nuclear weapons and wants less European dependence on the United States, is strongly against it. Britain's new Labor government, which wants to give up England's past atomic role, is cold to it.

Q. Why not use submarines, like the American Polaris subs?

A. Too expensive. Part of the MLF idea is to form a nuclear club for our allies with "dues" low enough for them to pay.

Q. How would MLF be financed?

A. That is still to be worked out. Presumably all participants would contribute, with the United States and West Germany probably bearing a larger share.

Future Homes All New

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — Tired of your old house? Why not junk it, and buy a new one — just as you do with your old car?

In the future that's just what Americans will do, according to a finance expert.

"The field is changing so swiftly — there are so many new innovations — that a house is out of date in 25 years," said Jack H. McDonald.

"You should be able to tear it down and rebuild it, or discard it as you do an old car now. That day is coming, just as soon as we can find a way to reduce building material costs."

McDonald, 54, son of a Pratt, Kan., railroad engineer, migrated west as a youth and entered the finance field. Today he is president of the San Diego Imperial Corp., the nation's fourth largest savings and loan holding company. It has assets of nearly $900 million.

Experience gained in making thousands of home loans has made McDonald an authority on America's building trends. He says the husband usually has the least influence of anyone in the family on deciding on the nature of its housing.

"Mom is still calling the shots in American home building. Then come the kids. And then, and only then, it's Pop. Sometimes even old Rover has as much to say as father."

McDonald says the American is somewhat nomadic by nature — and getting more so.

"On a nationwide basis, the average person moves once every five years, but more often than that in the Southwest and West.

"We have always been pretty much a nation of one-family homes, and that will continue. But land is getting so expensive, there is also a national trend toward highrise apartment buildings — even in Hawaii.

A Gateway To Development

Today's formal opening of the Midland-Shippingport Bridge could have a tremendous impact on Western Pennsylvania and the Upper Ohio Valley.

The stage has been set for an extensive development program. New industries, new businesses, new residential areas and a general re-awakening are there for the making as a result of the majestic span across the Ohio River.

But the bridge alone does not mean the development will come to pass. Those in responsible portions in the communities directly or indirectly linked with it must be the moving force — with the support of the thousands of hard-working, energetic people who call the region home and who have helped build it to its present capacity.

There is little doubt that the challenge will be met. The pioneering spirit of the past cannot help but exert its influence and spur the level-headed planning needed for the present and for the future. The commendable area-wide cooperation that has marked other enterprises must be continued.

Progress in the upper valley as a whole means progress in the individual communities which make up the valley complex.

Another gateway has become available to the many resources which lie within reach. It is up to all to see that the opportunity is not wasted.

We Can Move On With Confidence

Thanks to the sound judgment of six of the seven members of Council, the city income tax has been continued.

This means that progressive planning can be carried on without fear of a sudden halt because of lack of funds. It also means there will be none of the crippling cutbacks in vital services which would have resulted had the revenue which the tax provides been cut off.

The legislation approved last week keeps the tax at eight-tenths of 1 per cent — 80 cents on each $100 of earnings and other income. To date in 1964, the tax has produced more than $288,000.

To all who have wrestled with a budget of one kind or another — and who hasn't —it should be clear that near chaos would have occurred had the $288,000 been eliminated. Fortunately, because of the 6-1 Council vote, such an emergency has been avoided.

The administration and the Council have a renewed obligation to the people who are paying the bill to be constantly alert that the tax money is put to the best possible use.

Benefits already have been realized and more are in the offing as East Liverpool goes about the exacting job of moving forward on all productive fronts.

Nothing Has Been Done

Nothing has been done since the Kennedy assassination to change the two circumstances discussed most fervently after the tragedy occurred.

There has been no progress in laws to make it tougher for irresponsible and dangerous people to purchase and own guns of the highly lethal type used by Lee Oswald.

This was no weapon for hunting small game but a military rifle that Oswald was able to buy with no questions asked and possess with no specific authority. Even firearms buffs drew in their horns after the assassination in Dallas and conceded that ownership and operation of a gun that could shatter a human head at long range was as worthy of official scrutiny as, say, ownership of an auto, or purchase of a few grams of some potentially harmful medical preparation.

Nothing has been done, either, about reckless exposure of the chief executive in places of obvious risk. President Johnson gave his countrymen nervous prostration during his campaign by setting himself up as a special target in crowds.

This drew a certain amount of grudging admiration for presidential bravery, but no admiration for presidential prudence. The United States had no vice president. It has none now, only a vice president-elect.

And in this connection, Congress has made no move to set up a succession in the event of presidential incapacity, a matter President Eisenhower insisted was a prime necessity. What if President Kennedy had survived the gun wounds inflicted in Dallas, but without possession of his mind? Who would have held presidential authority until the end of his term?

But when it comes to things that haven't been done, there have been no measures to regularize and restrain coverage by the news media of events like the assassination in Dallas. If it happened again, there would be the same unmanageable influx of reporters, photographers, radio and TV crews, magazine writers and so on.

In the ensuing hulabaloo another Jack Ruby would have no trouble squirming to his shabby destiny as a murderer.

Out of all the good intentions that rebounded out of the Dallas fiasco, not one has amounted to anything.

There is talk now of a bipartisan move in the next Congress to give all major party candidates and their families the same protection given an incumbent president and vice president and their families — but don't bet on that, either.

The FBI Has A Problem

If searching discussion took the place of scathing denunciation, the Federal Bureau of Investigation could clarify its position in Southern civil rights cases.

The FBI director, J. Edgar Hoover, is impatient because of what he believes are unjustified attacks on FBI personnel in the South. But in an official announcement, the FBI has revealed the frustration behind the attacks.

People do not understand that the FBI is a federal investigative agency, nothing else. It is not a national police force. It has no power of law enforcement. It has no authority over state and local police forces.

Its agents, it declares, know who killed the civil rights workers in Mississippi last June and who are the prime suspects in the 1962 bombing of the Birmingham church in which four Negro children were killed. So much for FBI efficiency as far as investigative work is concerned.

But the FBI can make no arrests until it has enough evidence to obtain convictions. With no hope of help from many Southern police departments in civil rights cases, the FBI is largely on its own. It might as well try to find out who wielded the clubs and fired the shots in a Congo massacre.

Awareness of its frustration is no comfort to Negro citizens who want justice to be done and cannot hope for satisfaction from local law enforcement. They expect the FBI to do more than it is empowered to do. They think it should be a national police department. It isn't.

It is a federal bureau of investigation, nothing more. Its information is available to the U.S. Department of Justice, but even then there can be no prosecution of wrong-doers, except at departmental discretion.

If Mr. Hoover blows his top sometimes in a mood of frustration, don't we all?

Letter From Max

By Martin Miller

Dear Truman Twill:

Two sure signs that winter is upon us: We had to get a new air filter for the furnace and the hose was left outdoors on the ground and is one long tube of ice.

You better check the gear on your skis and ice skates so you don't get caught unprepared. And oil that snowblower.

Ever notice how much farther you can see through trees after the leaves fall? One unsuspected benefit of this is that some mothers with school children can spot the early-morning school bus coming several blocks away, whereas it formerly was hidden from sight behind the leafy trees. Only someone who has experienced this can know what a boon this is.

Hunters are around again, but the rabbits appear to be scarce. Most plentiful game are hen pheasants, which are protected and illegal game anyway. That is always the way it is, isn't it — plenty of what you can't have.

Loyalty oaths haven't been in the news much lately, but if the subject ever comes up here is a pertinent quote from Aeschylus 525-456 B.C.: "It is not the oath that makes us believe the man, but the man the oath."

You and I were talking about foods awhile ago, and it reminded me of the fellow who used to have a bowl of chili and a malted milk for lunch, which seemed like a nice balance, tastewise.

Some of the new postage stamps are very picturesque but so large it is almost impossible to find space for them on a small envelope.

Remember the gold old days when the icebox didn't have to be defrosted?

That recent series of newspaper articles on movies being shown in airliners was another reminder of how far behind railroads have fallen in passenger appeal. Imagine choosing an airline flight on the basis of what film they are showing: Something to look forward to on your next vacation.

Here is the kind of prize information that startles me: Ho Chi Minh, the troublesome Communist president of North Viet Nam, was once pastry chef in the London Carlton and served under the noted Escoffier. He sure is whipping up an unpalatable batter now. How do you like that, from pastry chef to president?

Much has been written of the conglomeration of numbers assigned to us these days, such as seven-digit telephone numbers, Social Security numbers, auto licenses and so on. It isn't too much to hope that someday some brain will standardize the blooming things for us dunces so an individual's all numbers, including postal Zip Code, will be the same, or just about the same and we will stand a chance of remembering.

Faithfully yours,
MAX

What Of The Future? Canadians Ask

By Max Harrelson

OTTAWA

When you journey across Canada today you find a country engrossed in self-examination. Its 19 million people are divided and disturbed over the future.

You find bitterness, name-calling, threats and sometimes violence. There are debates, seminars, editorials, floods of letters to newspapers and private discussions everywhere.

What is Canada? they ask. What does French-Canada want? Should Canada revise its constitution to give the provinces more authority? Should the traditional ties with the British crown be loosened, or broken?

Some of these problems are new. Others have worried Canadians, irritated them, and perplexed them over the years.

One, obviously, is Canada's proximity to the United States — a giant ten times as big in population, closely tied to Canada as an ally, deeply involved in the ownership of the country's industry and exporting U.S. culture in massive quantities to compete with Canada's own brand.

Canadians have a fierce national pride and they are trying hard to create a distinctive national image. Many have genuine fears that both their independence and their national personality may be snuffed out by what is intended as a friendly hug.

THERE ARE others who look across the border with envy at the higher wages paid by U.S. industry and at the lower cost of luxury items, such as automobiles, refrigerators and television sets.

A major complaint heard these days is that the Americans don't understand Canada and that they take Canada for granted.

Generally, however, Canadian-American relations have never been better. There has been a substantial improvement in the climate since the bitter anti-American attacks launched by former Prime Minister John G. Diefenbaker in the 1962 political campaign.

"Mom is still calling the shots in American home building. Then come the kids. And then, and only then, it's Pop. Sometimes even old Rover has as much to say as father."

McDonald says the American is somewhat nomadic by nature — and getting more so.

"On a nationwide basis, the average person moves once every five years, but more often than that in the Southwest and West.

"We have always been pretty much a nation of one-family homes, and that will continue. But land is getting so expensive, there is also a national trend toward highrise apartment buildings — even in Hawaii.

Churchill, 90, Receives Tributes Of Top Leaders

LONDON (AP)—Sir Winston Churchill climbed out of bed on his 90th birthday today, creaky of limb but sound of health.

"He's very well," said Sir Winston's doctor and long personal friend, Lord Moran, "and I can tell you something else—he still enjoys his daily cigar."

Lord Moran, 81, could have added that Britain's wartime leader still enjoys his daily brandy.

Sir Winston got up shortly before noon. Assisted by a male nurse—for he is very feeble—he dressed slowly and went downstairs at his London home to be greeted by his household.

Earlier, Lady Churchill, 79, greeted him with a birthday kiss and the light breakfast which her husband always enjoys with the newspapers in bed.

Sir Winston faced the avalanche of messages and gifts that poured in from all over the world. A message from Queen Elizabeth II was given to him first.

There were also messages from President Johnson and ex-Presidents Dwight D. Eisenhower and Harry S. Truman.

Britain's Post Office Department estimated Sir Winston would receive a minimum of 60,000 greetings before the end of the day.

A heavy cake with the words "Happy Birthday" on it was wheeled into the Churchill residence this morning.

"What's Sir Winston doing?" replied a secretary in response to a question from one of the reporters outside his home. "Why he's trying to spend the day quietly—looking forward to this evening."

That meant a birthday dinner with members of the family.

On the birthday eve, hundreds of wellwishers crowded outside Churchill's home near Hyde Park to sing "Happy Birthday, Sir Winston" and "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow."

The frail old man was helped to the window by his wife and a nurse.

Protestant Asks School Bus Aid For All Students

CINCINNATI (AP)—Since the health of school children is a matter of concern to the state, the state should furnish bus transportation for all pupils, an Episcopal Church leader says.

The Right Rev. Roger W. Blanchard, bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Diocese of Southern Ohio, expressed this opinion last weekend in a letter of a citizens' group and added.

"I therefore urge the 106th Ohio General Assembly to enact into law fair school bus legislation which will provide bus transportation for all children attending state accredited schools on the same basis as now afforded our public school children."

Bishop Blanchard's letter was addressed to John Roach of suburban Finneytown, chairman of the Ohio Citizens Committee of the Citizens for Educational Freedom.

Sales Boycott Planned Against Baldwin Firm

CINCINNATI (AP)—A southern civil rights group is planning a sales boycott against the Baldwin Piano & Organ Co. because it has a plant in Greenwood, Miss.

Andrew Young, executive director of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, said Sunday the selective buying campaign would be part of a general drive against Mississippi manufacturers.

Roads

this morning as the snow built up to the point that pavements became slippery. As early as 5 this morning, major arteries in East Liverpool had been cindered.

Motorists reported a traffic tieup in East End around 7 this morning that stretched for a good two miles. Cars were bumper - to - bumper from the state line as far west as the Pennsylvania Ave. "Hill Rd."

Traffic also was tied up on grades in rural areas that always prove troublesome in bad weather. Many motorists were unprepared for winter driving, adding to the confusion and the snarls.

A thin glaze of ice formed under the snow, particularly on the brick streets in the downtown area. It was hazardous going at first for both motorists and pedestrians.

The northern plains and parts of the Midwest froze in bitter Arctic air that sent temperatures tumbling Sunday.

In front of this new cold blast, a storm in the middle Mississippi Valley clogged highways and roads with one to four inches of snow. It covered roads from southeastern Nebraska through Iowa and northern Missouri to west-central Illinois.

The mercury plunged to 29 degrees below zero yesterday morning in Bismarck, capital of North Dakota. It was the lowest ever recorded in November. Temperatures at dawn generally were ten to 20 below zero in the Dakotas and Minnesota.

County highway workers started ashing roads at 7 this morning. Most roads were reported snow-covered and slippery in spots.

The State Highway Patrol at Lisbon reported area highways were snow - covered and extremely hazardous this morning. The dispatcher said the telephones were ringing continually with reports of minor accidents.

Seven minor accidents had been investigated since midnight Sunday. No major traffic tieups were reported.

Two city street crews were called out at 3 a. m. to begin salting and ashing streets, Supt. W. M. Laughlin said.

The crews continued the work until 7 a. m. and then were joined by other department employes as the work progressed, Laughlin said.

Conditions apparently were at their worst on the Midland-East Liverpool Rd., where motorists were held up an average of two hours this morning by a slick grade at Smiths Ferry.

13 Greeks Die As Old Land Mine Detonates

LAMIA, Greece (AP) — A World War II land mine exploded at a bridge dedication Sunday, killing 13 persons and injuring 54 others.

Police said the mine, buried in the earth, probably was set off by the weight of thousands of people moving about the site of the new Gorgopatomon bridge, destroyed by British and Greek forces in 1942 to cut German supply lines. The new bridge was not damaged.

Judge Fines Chester Man

One motorist was fined and two forfeited bonds at traffic hearings today in Municipal Court.

Blaine Everett Franklin, 107 Carolina Ave., Chester, was fined $25 and costs on a charge of driving left of center. He was cited Friday night by the State Highway Patrol after an accident on the Chester Bridge.

Roy Birch Watson Jr. of Homestead Heights forfeited $17.50 after being cited Thanksgiving by the patrol for failure to obey a stop sign at the intersection of Homestead Ave. and Route 170.

John C. Bartimac of Freedom, Pa., also forfeited an unspecified bond on a charge of driving without an operator's permit.

Bartimac had posted a Beaver County AAA membership card. He was cited at 3:22 a. m. Sunday at E. 5th and Walnut Sts. after being observed driving the wrong way on E. 5th St.

Frank L. McElhaney of 4th Ave., LaCroft, is scheduled for a hearing Friday on a charge of driving 80 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone on the East Liverpool-Wellsville Rd.

City Reservoir's Repair Checked

The overhauled walls of the Thompson Ave. reservoir were inspected by the Board of Public Utilities, which administers the operation of the water and sewage departments, as part of a tour of water works property Friday afternoon.

Donald T. Duke, superintendent, said 25,000 sacks of "gunnite," a mixture of sand and cement fired into the walls under pressure, were used in the three-year project.

About half of the high service reservoir on Huston Hill remains to be completed, with the work planned for next year, Duke said.

The board was "generally pleased" during the inspection, the superintendent said, but added a bad storm water condition was noted at the Beechwood pump station.

A new section of sewer is needed to stop storm water from eroding soil at the rear of the station at Haywood and Vernia Sts., he said.

Death Claims Former School Head At Tiffin

TIFFIN, Ohio (AP) — Death has taken C. A. Krout, superintendent of schools here from 1900 to his retirement in 1931. He died Sunday at age 102 in the Alta Mira Rest Home, where he lived.

Krout was the oldest living alumnus of Wittenberg University, having graduated in 1887, and the oldest living member of national Alpha Tau Omega fraternity.

Courthouse Visited

LISBON — The law class at United Local High School is visiting the Courthouse today. The students will visit various offices and then will sit in on a civil case being presented in one of the two Common Pleas Courts. Mrs. Pearl Camp of Salem is the instructor.

Catholics

time instead of Latin in about half the service.

Most of the English is prescribed for use in the people's responses to the chanting of the priests in the 17,500 parish churches spanning America.

The reforms were authorized by the Vatican's Ecumenical Council last Dec. 4.

"It's a terrific social act," said the Rev. Luke O'Connell of St. Anthony's Shrine, Boston. "The people are now able to see . . . what was hidden before."

The St. Paul woman, Helen Conrad, found the new Mass "very meaningful."

The San Francisco woman, who declined to give her name, preferred the full Latin usage, saying, "I'm a converted Catholic and we feel strongly about the old things."

The changes — including in many churches the optional practice of having the priest face his congregation instead of having his back to them — marked in large measure the end of an era that began 400 years ago. It was then that the Council of Trent established basic norms for the Latin Mass that became outdated Sunday.

"With the introduction of the vernacular," said the Rev. Ralph Gorman, editor of the Catholic Magazine, the Sign, "the people can participate intelligently...instead of murmuring a mumbo-jumbo of Latin, as incomprehensible to them as Hindustani."

A New York City parishioner speculated it will "cut down on daydreaming." Mary Gibbons, who attends St. Catherine of Siena church, added somewhat sternly, "It's going to force Catholics to do what they have been supposed to do all along — follow and participate in the Mass."

3 Get Fines Of $100 In Intoxication Cases

Three men arrested for intoxication under the state law drew fines of $100 and costs each today when arraigned before Acting Municipal Judge Paul Tobin.

They were Albert Donahue and William C. Fisher, who were arrested at 8:45 p. m. Sunday in Rural Ln., and William Ingram of Chester, who was taken into custody Friday afternoon at E. 3rd and College Sts.

Police said Donahue has been arrested for intoxication five times this year, while it was the third arrest for Fisher and Ingram.

Early Mailing Slated For Veterans' Checks

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House says some 4.75 million veterans will start receiving their $224.5 million in GI insurance dividends by the first of the year.

Faster methods and equipment have allowed speedier payments of dividends which, until recent years, were paid on the anniversary date of individual policies.

About $210 million will be paid to World War II veterans, the remaining $14.5 million to veterans of World War I. Policies of Korean war veterans do not provide regular annual dividends.

Mariner

thought were Canopus. Each time it had hitched itself onto the wrong star.

Mariner needs the fix to keep it flying through space without tumbling into positions where its radio equipment won't function properly.

It also needs the fix on Canopus for a crucial midcourse maneuver.

When Mariner 4 was rocketed into orbit Saturday from Cape Kennedy, Fla., it was aimed on a course which would take it on a 7½-month, 325-million-mile journey to within perhaps 150,000 miles of Mars.

For Mariner's key assignment -- taking television pictures to unravel some of the red-hued planet's many secrets — the spacecraft must make a fly-by at 8,000 to 10,000 miles.

Scientists who developed the craft planned to fire a rocket aboard the ship from 5 to 10 days after launch to put it into the refined course for the 10,000-mile near-miss.

Before the rocket can be fired, scientists must be sure which way Mariner is pointed. With the bottom of the craft firmly fixed on Canopus, they will know which way the rocket will push the craft.

This position also will keep Mariner's important long-range directional radio antenna pointed toward tracking stations like the giant antennae at JPL's Goldstone tracking station north of Pasadena.

Rain Reduces Crowd For Lisbon's Parade

LISBON — Hundreds of Lisbon area residents, a smaller crowd than last year due to rain, stood in the business section to see the annual Christmas parade sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce Saturday afternoon.

Santa Claus distributed approximately 1,500 treats to children on the Square following the parade, which began at McKinley School and moved west on E. Lincoln Way and dispersed at Beaver St.

Winners among marching units were Mary-Ann-Ettes of Salem, first, and Lisbon Di-Cadettes, second. The Rotary Club won first for the floats.

Christmas lights installed by Jaycees were turned on for the first time. Blair Lewis was general chairman of the parade.

Cook extra oatmeal and pour into a greased small loaf pan; chill. Next morning, turn out, slice and brown in hot butter or margarine. Serve with butter and honey. Wonderful for breakfast on a cold morning!

Lord Moran, 81, could have added that Britain's wartime leader still enjoys his daily brandy.

Sir Winston got up shortly before noon. Assisted by a male nurse—for he is very feeble—he dressed slowly and went downstairs at his London home to be greeted by his household.

Earlier, Lady Churchill, 79, greeted him with a birthday kiss and the light breakfast which her husband always enjoys with the newspapers in bed.

Sir Winston faced the avalanche of messages and gifts that poured in from all over the world. A message from Queen Elizabeth II was given to him first.

There were also messages from President Johnson and ex-Presidents Dwight D. Eisenhower and Harry S. Truman.

Britain's Post Office Department estimated Sir Winston would receive a minimum of 60,000 greetings before the end of the day.

A heavy cake with the words "Happy Birthday" on it was wheeled into the Churchill residence this morning.

"What's Sir Winston doing?" replied a secretary in response to a question from one of the reporters outside his home. "Why he's trying to spend the day quietly—looking forward to this evening."

That meant a birthday dinner with members of the family.

On the birthday eve, hundreds of wellwishers crowded outside Churchill's home near Hyde Park to sing "Happy Birthday, Sir Winston" and "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow."

The frail old man was helped to the window by his wife and a nurse.

Protestant Asks School Bus Aid For All Students

CINCINNATI (AP)—Since the health of school children is a matter of concern to the state, the state should furnish bus transportation for all pupils, an Episcopal Church leader says.

The Right Rev. Roger W. Blanchard, bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Diocese of Southern Ohio, expressed this opinion last weekend in a letter of a citizens' group and added.

"I therefore urge the 106th Ohio General Assembly to enact into law fair school bus legislation which will provide bus transportation for all children attending state accredited schools on the same basis as now afforded our public school children."

Bishop Blanchard's letter was addressed to John Roach of suburban Finneytown, chairman of the Ohio Citizens Committee of the Citizens for Educational Freedom.

Sales Boycott Planned Against Baldwin Firm

CINCINNATI (AP)—A southern civil rights group is planning a sales boycott against the Baldwin Piano & Organ Co. because it has a plant in Greenwood, Miss.

Andrew Young, executive director of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, said Sunday the selective buying campaign would be part of a general drive against Mississippi manufacturers.

Roads

this morning as the snow built up to the point that pavements became slippery. As early as 5 this morning, major arteries in East Liverpool had been cindered.

Motorists reported a traffic tieup in East End around 7 this morning that stretched for a good two miles. Cars were bumper - to - bumper from the state line as far west as the Pennsylvania Ave. "Hill Rd."

Traffic also was tied up on grades in rural areas that always prove troublesome in bad weather. Many motorists were unprepared for winter driving, adding to the confusion and the snarls.

A thin glaze of ice formed under the snow, particularly on the brick streets in the downtown area. It was hazardous going at first for both motorists and pedestrians.

The northern plains and parts of the Midwest froze in bitter Arctic air that sent temperatures tumbling Sunday.

In front of this new cold blast, a storm in the middle Mississippi Valley clogged highways and roads with one to four inches of snow. It covered roads from southeastern Nebraska through Iowa and northern Missouri to west-central Illinois.

The mercury plunged to 29 degrees below zero yesterday morning in Bismarck, capital of North Dakota. It was the lowest ever recorded in November. Temperatures at dawn generally were ten to 20 below zero in the Dakotas and Minnesota.

County highway workers started ashing roads at 7 this morning. Most roads were reported snow-covered and slippery in spots.

The State Highway Patrol at Lisbon reported area highways were snow - covered and extremely hazardous this morning. The dispatcher said the telephones were ringing continually with reports of minor accidents.

Seven minor accidents had been investigated since midnight Sunday. No major traffic tieups were reported.

Two city street crews were called out at 3 a. m. to begin salting and ashing streets, Supt. W. M. Laughlin said.

The crews continued the work until 7 a. m. and then were joined by other department employes as the work progressed, Laughlin said.

Conditions apparently were at their worst on the Midland-East Liverpool Rd., where motorists were held up an average of two hours this morning by a slick grade at Smiths Ferry.

13 Greeks Die As Old Land Mine Detonates

LAMIA, Greece (AP) — A World War II land mine exploded at a bridge dedication Sunday, killing 13 persons and injuring 54 others.

Police said the mine, buried in the earth, probably was set off by the weight of thousands of people moving about the site of the new Gorgopatomon bridge, destroyed by British and Greek forces in 1942 to cut German supply lines. The new bridge was not damaged.

Judge Fines Chester Man

One motorist was fined and two forfeited bonds at traffic hearings today in Municipal Court.

Blaine Everett Franklin, 107 Carolina Ave., Chester, was fined $25 and costs on a charge of driving left of center. He was cited Friday night by the State Highway Patrol after an accident on the Chester Bridge.

Roy Birch Watson Jr. of Homestead Heights forfeited $17.50 after being cited Thanksgiving by the patrol for failure to obey a stop sign at the intersection of Homestead Ave. and Route 170.

John C. Bartimac of Freedom, Pa., also forfeited an unspecified bond on a charge of driving without an operator's permit.

Bartimac had posted a Beaver County AAA membership card. He was cited at 3:22 a. m. Sunday at E. 5th and Walnut Sts. after being observed driving the wrong way on E. 5th St.

Frank L. McElhaney of 4th Ave., LaCroft, is scheduled for a hearing Friday on a charge of driving 80 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone on the East Liverpool-Wellsville Rd.

City Reservoir's Repair Checked

The overhauled walls of the Thompson Ave. reservoir were inspected by the Board of Public Utilities, which administers the operation of the water and sewage departments, as part of a tour of water works property Friday afternoon.

Donald T. Duke, superintendent, said 25,000 sacks of "gunnite," a mixture of sand and cement fired into the walls under pressure, were used in the three-year project.

About half of the high service reservoir on Huston Hill remains to be completed, with the work planned for next year, Duke said.

The board was "generally pleased" during the inspection, the superintendent said, but added a bad storm water condition was noted at the Beechwood pump station.

A new section of sewer is needed to stop storm water from eroding soil at the rear of the station at Haywood and Vernia Sts., he said.

Death Claims Former School Head At Tiffin

TIFFIN, Ohio (AP) — Death has taken C. A. Krout, superintendent of schools here from 1900 to his retirement in 1931. He died Sunday at age 102 in the Alta Mira Rest Home, where he lived.

Krout was the oldest living alumnus of Wittenberg University, having graduated in 1887, and the oldest living member of national Alpha Tau Omega fraternity.

time instead of Latin in about half the service.

Most of the English is prescribed for use in the people's responses to the chanting of the priests in the 17,500 parish churches spanning America.

The reforms were authorized by the Vatican's Ecumenical Council last Dec. 4.

"It's a terrific social act," said the Rev. Luke O'Connell of St. Anthony's Shrine, Boston. "The people are now able to see . . . what was hidden before."

The St. Paul woman, Helen Conrad, found the new Mass "very meaningful."

The San Francisco woman, who declined to give her name, preferred the full Latin usage, saying, "I'm a converted Catholic and we feel strongly about the old things."

The changes — including in many churches the optional practice of having the priest face his congregation instead of having his back to them — marked in large measure the end of an era that began 400 years ago. It was then that the Council of Trent established basic norms for the Latin Mass that became outdated Sunday.

"With the introduction of the vernacular," said the Rev. Ralph Gorman, editor of the Catholic Magazine, the Sign, "the people can participate intelligently...instead of murmuring a mumbo-jumbo of Latin, as incomprehensible to them as Hindustani."

A New York City parishioner speculated it will "cut down on daydreaming." Mary Gibbons, who attends St. Catherine of Siena church, added somewhat sternly, "It's going to force Catholics to do what they have been supposed to do all along — follow and participate in the Mass."

3 Get Fines Of $100 In Intoxication Cases

Three men arrested for intoxication under the state law drew fines of $100 and costs each today when arraigned before Acting Municipal Judge Paul Tobin.

They were Albert Donahue and William C. Fisher, who were arrested at 8:45 p. m. Sunday in Rural Ln., and William Ingram of Chester, who was taken into custody Friday afternoon at E. 3rd and College Sts.

Police said Donahue has been arrested for intoxication five times this year, while it was the third arrest for Fisher and Ingram.

Early Mailing Slated For Veterans' Checks

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House says some 4.75 million veterans will start receiving their $224.5 million in GI insurance dividends by the first of the year.

Faster methods and equipment have allowed speedier payments of dividends which, until recent years, were paid on the anniversary date of individual policies.

About $210 million will be paid to World War II veterans, the remaining $14.5 million to veterans of World War I. Policies of Korean war veterans do not provide regular annual dividends.

thought were Canopus. Each time it had hitched itself onto the wrong star.

Mariner needs the fix to keep it flying through space without tumbling into positions where its radio equipment won't function properly.

It also needs the fix on Canopus for a crucial midcourse maneuver.

When Mariner 4 was rocketed into orbit Saturday from Cape Kennedy, Fla., it was aimed on a course which would take it on a 7½-month, 325-million-mile journey to within perhaps 150,000 miles of Mars.

For Mariner's key assignment -- taking television pictures to unravel some of the red-hued planet's many secrets — the spacecraft must make a fly-by at 8,000 to 10,000 miles.

Scientists who developed the craft planned to fire a rocket aboard the ship from 5 to 10 days after launch to put it into the refined course for the 10,000-mile near-miss.

Before the rocket can be fired, scientists must be sure which way Mariner is pointed. With the bottom of the craft firmly fixed on Canopus, they will know which way the rocket will push the craft.

This position also will keep Mariner's important long-range directional radio antenna pointed toward tracking stations like the giant antennae at JPL's Goldstone tracking station north of Pasadena.

Rain Reduces Crowd For Lisbon's Parade

LISBON — Hundreds of Lisbon area residents, a smaller crowd than last year due to rain, stood in the business section to see the annual Christmas parade sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce Saturday afternoon.

Santa Claus distributed approximately 1,500 treats to children on the Square following the parade, which began at McKinley School and moved west on E. Lincoln Way and dispersed at Beaver St.

Winners among marching units were Mary-Ann-Ettes of Salem, first, and Lisbon Di-Cadettes, second. The Rotary Club won first for the floats.

Christmas lights installed by Jaycees were turned on for the first time. Blair Lewis was general chairman of the parade.

Cook extra oatmeal and pour into a greased small loaf pan; chill. Next morning, turn out, slice and brown in hot butter or margarine. Serve with butter and honey. Wonderful for breakfast on a cold morning!

Wellsville Civil Air Patrol Observance Is Proclaimed

Although planning no official program during the 23rd anniversary observance of the Civil Air Patrol this week, Wellsville squadron 306 hopes the occasion will serve to point up the role of the volunteer civilian organization in promoting aerospace education and rescue training for area youths.

Mayor William W. Daugherty of Wellsville has signed a proclamation designating today through Saturday as Civil Air Patrol Week.

An official civilian auxiliary of the Air Force, the CAP was founded Dec. 1, 1941, by a group who volunteered services and their privately - owned aircraft to patrol America's coastlines and borders. During World War II, CAP pilots flew 24 million miles on anti-submarine patrol and thousands more miles on courier missions for the armed forces.

There are 82,000 members in the CAP, with the Wellsville squadron listing 18 cadets, including seven senior members. First Lt. Michael Mato is commanding officer, and Chief Warrant Officer Phil Corsello is executive officer.

Corsello reported the squadron is planning to conduct a series of classes in search and rescue work, perhaps the best-known endeavor of the CAP. The squadron meets each Wednesday night at 7 at Wellsville High School. It was organized two and a half years ago.

As a preliminary function to the national observance, 10 Wellsville cadets and their girls attended a wiener roast and hayride Friday night at the farm of Ed Serafy of near No. 16 School. Mr. and Mrs. Corsello were chaperones.

Plans are being made to organize a girls' squadron. A visit by the girls to Wednesday night's meeting has been postponed.

By mail ballots counted Saturday afternoon, the union voted 287-209 to end a walkout begun Oct. 4.

The utility, serving 140,000 in a nine-county area of north-central Ohio, kept operating during the strike, using supervisory personnel.

John Arbogast of Clyde, business agent of Local 986, said the new contract provides pay raises of from 2 to 11 cents hourly and adds a seventh holiday, Good Friday.

Johnson Set To End Visit

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson returns to his White House desk today after an 11-day visit to his Texas ranch.

The President had no appointments listed. Tuesday he will confer with Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor, who has returned from South Viet Nam for conferences on U.S. policy.

Johnson told a news conference Saturday the policy talks should produce no dramatic developments.

In a front-porch news conference Saturday the President touched on such matters as:

—South Viet Nam. The President foresaw no dramatic change in U.S. involvement in the Southeast Asia war. Of the conference with Taylor, Johnson said: "I anticipate that there will be no dramatic announcement to come out of these meetings except in the form of your newsmen's speculation."

— J. Edgar Hoover. Johnson skirted a question whether the FBI director's recent blasts at the Rev. Martin Luther King, the Warren Commission and the judiciary meant Hoover's usefulness has been impaired.

He said Hoover and King both "have exercised their freedom of speech on occasion," adding: "My problem is to try to prevent the strong divisions that could come to pass from time to time, instead of provoke them . . . I would hope this would not degenerate into a battle of personalities."

Asked how long Hoover could stay on the job, Johnson referred newsmen to his remarks at a White House ceremony last May, when he waived the compulsory retirement age of 70 for Hoover. Hoover will reach that age Jan. 1.

Johnson Set To End Visit

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson returns to his White House desk today after an 11-day visit to his Texas ranch.

The President had no appointments listed. Tuesday he will confer with Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor, who has returned from South Viet Nam for conferences on U.S. policy.

Johnson told a news conference Saturday the policy talks should produce no dramatic developments.

In a front-porch news conference Saturday the President touched on such matters as:

—South Viet Nam. The President foresaw no dramatic change in U.S. involvement in the Southeast Asia war. Of the conference with Taylor, Johnson said: "I anticipate that there will be no dramatic announcement to come out of these meetings except in the form of your newsmen's speculation."

— J. Edgar Hoover. Johnson skirted a question whether the FBI director's recent blasts at the Rev. Martin Luther King, the Warren Commission and the judiciary meant Hoover's usefulness has been impaired.

He said Hoover and King both "have exercised their freedom of speech on occasion," adding: "My problem is to try to prevent the strong divisions that could come to pass from time to time, instead of provoke them . . . I would hope this would not degenerate into a battle of personalities."

Asked how long Hoover could stay on the job, Johnson referred newsmen to his remarks at a White House ceremony last May, when he waived the compulsory retirement age of 70 for Hoover. Hoover will reach that age Jan. 1.

Youngster Puts Dad's Hand Into Side Pocket

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP)— It was a bad day in Paul Gulinski's life when he allowed his young son to accompany him to the pool room.

The youngster dropped daddy's keys into a pocket of the pool table at the Baltimore Inn Saturday night. Gulinski reached for them and got his hand stuck.

Firemen had to use a power saw and hand tools to free him.

Battle Behind Scenes In Ohio Senate

GOP Leadership Struggle Watched

By WILLIAM S. VANCE
Review Staff Correspondent

COLUMBUS, Ohio — Political campaigning may be over for now in the rest of Ohio but there's one to watch here in the Statehouse.

It's a quiet but intensive contest between two long-time colleagues who have their sights on the GOP leadership of the potentially chaotic 1965-66 Ohio Senate.

Top contenders to succeed Majority Leader C. Stanley Mechem, R-Nelsonville, who was unseated in the Nov. 3 election, are Sens. William H. Deddens, R-Cincinnati, and Theodore M. Gray, R-Piqua.

To Decide Before Jan. 4

They and the 14 Republican who will serve with them in the evenly split Senate next year will decide the leadership in a caucus some time before the 106th Ohio General Assembly convenes Jan. 4.

The decision may provide a tipoff as to how much political warfare Ohioans can expect in the Senate, whose 16-16 partisan division stands as a potential barrier to any piece of legislation in the next session.

Deddens, who was a legislator before many of his present colleagues were old enough to vote, is regarded as the favorite. But as of last week, neither he nor Gray had nailed down the necessary nine votes.

It will be up to Deddens, as senior member of the new Senate, to call the caucus. If he calls it before the morning of Jan. 4 — the latest time possible — it will mean he either has the votes or has withdrawn from the running.

Democrats Favor Deddens

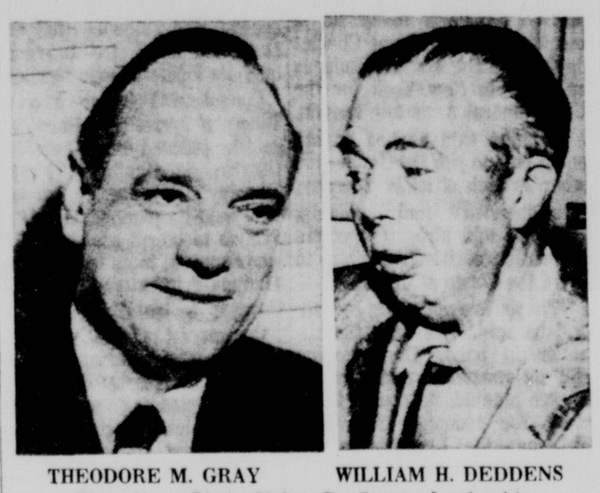
Ironically, Deddens probably has more support among Democrats than Republicans at this point, even though word has it that both Gov. James A. Rhodes and Ohio GOP Chairman Ray Bliss are plugging for him.



THEODORE M. GRAY WILLIAM H. DEDDENS
They Have Their Sights On Senate Leadership.

It isn't that Deddens is particularly well liked by the opposition, but some Senate Democrats believe he is the lesser of what they consider two evils.

And Deddens has stepped on toes with regularity. It bothers him not at all if they happen to be Republican toes. He's tough and has iron-clad convictions. He doesn't often vote against his party but if the GOP position doesn't suit him he lets it be known.

Dems Hostile to Gray

Gray, a cool and capable legislator, has embittered the Democrats with the remark that if Republicans control Senate organization in 1965, Democrats can expect the same ratio of committee seats as they hold in this session.

The ratio on most committees is five Republicans to two Democrats. On four important committees, Republicans have a 7-2 edge. Republicans hold all the chairmanships.

Democrats are saying privately that if Gray becomes the GOP leader the war will be on. And one Democratic senator says he can name "three or four key Republicans" who would break ranks on a partisan showdown with Gray as leader. He wouldn't name them, however.

Harmony Unlikely

Almost anything except bipartisan harmony can be expected in next year's Senate.

Democrats have retained Sen. Frank King of Toledo as their floor leader. King, who has had some trouble holding his party together on crucial votes in the past — particularly members of the Cleveland delegation — will be in a much stronger position next year.

Besides having enough votes to create a standoff, King will wield more power among Democrats because of his position as president of the Ohio AFL-CIO.

If his party stands behind him, King will have an absolute veto at his disposal any time he chooses to use it.

Bills Need 17 Votes

It will take 17 votes to pass a bill in the Senate next year. Democrats have said they will challenge Lt. Gov. John Brown's authority to break a tie vote on legislation. The first time he does vote, the question probably will go to the Ohio Supreme Court.

Even if the court should rule the GOP lieutenant governor has tie-breaking authority, the Democrats will have an ace up their sleeves.

Since, in any event, Brown could vote only in case of a dead lock, the Democrats need only send one of their members out of the chamber. A strict partisan vote then would be 16-15 — not a tie and not enough to pass a bill.

'Call of the House'

A Republican then could move for a "call of the house." In that case, the doors would be barred and the missing member would be rounded up by the sergeant-at-arms, with the aid of the State Highway Patrol if necessary.

Upon his return, the defecting member's name would be called. The Senate rules provide that all members present shall vote. But the rules do not explain how a member can be forced to vote.

Theoretically, he could sit there and gaze at the ceiling all day and all night while the clerk kept calling his name.

Firm Announces New Vapor-Coat Process In Steel

PITTSBURGH — Commercial availability of light gauge steel vapor - coated with aluminum and other metals is scheduled by 1966 U.S. Steel Corp. officials announced Sunday in a report of successful development of the new process.

L. B. Worthington, president of the corporation, said as a result of the process, U.S. Steel will build a new continuous high speed mill at its Fairless Works near Philadelphia.

In the vapor process, according to the firm's announcement, the aluminum is heated in a crucible by an electron beam to a temperature at which the metal vaporizes. This vapor is deposited as a thin layer on the rapidly moving steel strip as it passes through a vacuum chamber containing the vapor.

R. F. Sentner, executive vice president - commercial, said the aluminum vapor - coated steel product would be competitive with tin plate or other conventional materials used in packaging.

Sentner said that steel officials believe the vacuum deposition process will open new possibilities for the use of steel coated with aluminum or other metals.

Cigarettes And Coins Stolen From Machine

Cigarettes worth $30.60 and an unknown amount in coins were stolen when thieves ripped the front off a vending machine Sunday night in the Yellow Cab Co. office in the Little Building, police reported.

Patrolman Karl Samples investigated after a woman patron reported the machine had been rifled. He said he found the front of the device lying on the floor and the coin box missing. The machine was forced open sometime between 6 and 7:55 p. m., officers said.

The Hune Co. of W. 8th St. was listed as the owner. A repairman for the firm estimated the loss, police said.

Wheeling Trust Firm Takes Over Another

WHEELING (AP) — The Wheeling Dollar Savings & Trust Co. has announced purchase of the 74-year-old South Wheeling Bank & Trust Co.

Robert C. Hazlett, Wheeling Dollar president, said employes and facilities of the South Wheeling bank will be merged into Wheeling Dollar as soon as possible.

Gore H. Beall, president of South Wheeling Bank & Trust, will become a vice president and member of the board of Wheeling Dollar.

Exiled Cubans Serve Against Congo Rebels

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — About 300 Cuban exiles are fighting Peking-backed rebels in the Congo, informed sources say.

"They might be called mercenaries since they receive pay for their services, but actually they are training for forthcoming warfare (against Fidel Castro) in Cuba," said one exile.

The Cuban brigade in the Congo, the source said, includes 220 infantrymen and 70 aviation men, including 45 pilots.

Canada ranks second in the world in size. Russia is first.

If his party stands behind him, King will have an absolute veto at his disposal any time he chooses to use it.

Bills Need 17 Votes

It will take 17 votes to pass a bill in the Senate next year. Democrats have said they will challenge Lt. Gov. John Brown's authority to break a tie vote on legislation. The first time he does vote, the question probably will go to the Ohio Supreme Court.

Even if the court should rule the GOP lieutenant governor has tie-breaking authority, the Democrats will have an ace up their sleeves.

Since, in any event, Brown could vote only in case of a dead lock, the Democrats need only send one of their members out of the chamber. A strict partisan vote then would be 16-15 — not a tie and not enough to pass a bill.

'Call of the House'

A Republican then could move for a "call of the house." In that case, the doors would be barred and the missing member would be rounded up by the sergeant-at-arms, with the aid of the State Highway Patrol if necessary.

Upon his return, the defecting member's name would be called. The Senate rules provide that all members present shall vote. But the rules do not explain how a member can be forced to vote.

Theoretically, he could sit there and gaze at the ceiling all day and all night while the clerk kept calling his name.

Firm Announces New Vapor-Coat Process In Steel

PITTSBURGH — Commercial availability of light gauge steel vapor - coated with aluminum and other metals is scheduled by 1966 U.S. Steel Corp. officials announced Sunday in a report of successful development of the new process.

L. B. Worthington, president of the corporation, said as a result of the process, U.S. Steel will build a new continuous high speed mill at its Fairless Works near Philadelphia.

In the vapor process, according to the firm's announcement, the aluminum is heated in a crucible by an electron beam to a temperature at which the metal vaporizes. This vapor is deposited as a thin layer on the rapidly moving steel strip as it passes through a vacuum chamber containing the vapor.

R. F. Sentner, executive vice president - commercial, said the aluminum vapor - coated steel product would be competitive with tin plate or other conventional materials used in packaging.

Sentner said that steel officials believe the vacuum deposition process will open new possibilities for the use of steel coated with aluminum or other metals.

The Hune Co. of W. 8th St. was listed as the owner. A repairman for the firm estimated the loss, police said.

Exiled Cubans Serve Against Congo Rebels

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — About 300 Cuban exiles are fighting Peking-backed rebels in the Congo, informed sources say.

"They might be called mercenaries since they receive pay for their services, but actually they are training for forthcoming warfare (against Fidel Castro) in Cuba," said one exile.

The Cuban brigade in the Congo, the source said, includes 220 infantrymen and 70 aviation men, including 45 pilots.

Canada ranks second in the world in size. Russia is first.

basic constitutional and financial integrity if the rule is not applied.

Thant proposed that the assembly, until its Christmas recess, confine itself to matters on which there is unanimous agreement. Thus there would be no roll-call votes on which the Soviet vote could be challenged. Meanwhile, negotiations could be held in an effort to resolve the financial deadlock.

Diplomatic sources said France might scuttle the deal. France falls more than two years behind in her dues next year because she has refused to pay her share of the Congo peacekeeping operation. There was speculation that she would try to force the issue now so that the first fight would come over the Soviet delinquency rather than hers.

Rusk and chief U.S. delegate Adlai E. Stevenson underlined the U.S. stress on the money issue Sunday night as Rusk arrived from Washington. Rusk said the United Nations now faces "constitutional questions which go to the very heart of the organization." Stevenson termed the forthcoming session "critical."

Rusk invited Gromyko to his hotel suite for an extended "working luncheon" with top aides from both nations. Various East-West topics were up for discussion, but U.N. financing was No. 1.

horses drawing the hearse.

The paratroopers beat some 50 mourners off the hearse, including the father of the dead youth, shoved the boy's family into the vehicle and escorted them to the cemetery.

Some of the demonstrators were bloodied but none was seriously injured. Young girls beat and clawed the soldiers, but the mob was swiftly dispersed after the paratroopers marched off with the hearse.

The government had given permission for the funeral but stipulated that only 200 marchers could take part and that the procession follow a route avoiding downtown Saigon. The procession, however, started out with 2,000 marchers and at one point veered toward downtown Saigon.

Officials blamed Viet Cong agents for sending an empty locomotive rolling into Saigon's main station early today. It crashed into a railroad car, killed five persons waiting in the station and injured 11 others.

Tshombe Set For Meeting

PARIS (AP) — Premier Moise Tshombe of the Congo arrived in Paris today for a meeting with President Charles de Gaulle. The African leader is en route to New York for the U.N. General Assembly session.

Tshombe said he has an appointment to see De Gaulle and other French officials Tuesday.

Bareheaded and smiling, Tshombe told airport reporters he considered it safe for him to leave the Congo at this time.

"Things are not going so badly," he said. "We have the situation in hand. The rebellion will be mastered and already we are planning to create three zones for economic recovery: Katanga, the Leopoldville region, and the Stanleyville region. It is time that some thought is given to bringing an end to the misery that the Congolese people have known for four years."

Tshombe declared the Belgian paratroopers who moved into Stanleyville and Paulis were "emergency troops whose actions were authorized by us for humanitarian purposes."

Asked if there was evidence of Red Chinese involvement in the rebellion, Tshombe replied: "We have found Chinese arms among their stocks."

gian paratroopers, fears mounted for the safety of 500 to 1,000 whites still in the rebel-held areas of the northern Congo.

Refugees said the Peking-backed rebels were intent on killing all whites to vent their anger over the paratroop action in Stanleyville and Paulis last week.

The confirmed death toll of white hostages stood at 85, including three American missionaries. Many were slaughtered only minutes before the Belgians arrived.

At least 500 and possibly as many as 1,000 whites are still in rebel areas. A group of several hundred is at Bunia in the north. Many missionaries and plantation managers are scattered singly in isolated communities.

Diplomatic sources in Leopoldville said the Belgian troops were supposed to make one more air drop but it was called off. The sources could not say why. However, the Belgian government had said at the outset it did not expect the operation to last longer than about three days.

One the rebels' victims, American medical missionary Paul Carlson, has been buried beside the church he served in the Congo, his friends reported.

About 300 whites and 1,000 Congolese attended the funeral Saturday at the Church of Christ in Karawa village, in Loubangui Province. His widow and two children were present. They are to leave for the United States within a few days.

Belgium rejected a Soviet charge of aggression as a "propaganda maneuver." Foreign Minister Paul-Henri Spaak said the paratroopers' withdrawal was evidence that Belgium had no desire to reconquer its former Congo territory.

Congolese Premier Moise Tshombe arrived in Paris and said he planned to see President Charles de Gaulle of France Tuesday. Diplomats in Leopoldville said he planned to ask for French technical assistance. He was expected to go to New York Thursday to attend the U.N. General Assembly.

Communist China staged a massive anti-American demonstration by 700,000 in Peking Sunday, pledging support for the Congolese rebels, the New China News Agency reported. Party chairman Mao Tze-tung and Premier Chou En-lai attended.

In Cairo, where students burned the John F. Kennedy Memorial Library on Thanksgiving Day, the government imposed a news blackout on its apology to the United States.

Whereabouts of the rebel leader, Christophe Gbenye, and his lieutenants were unknown. The Middle East News Agency reported in Cairo Saturday that they had entered the south Sudan, north of the Congo. Sudanese officials denied this.

Rebel troops re-entered Paulis as soon as the Belgians left. They also continued to harass Congolese troops guarding Stanleyville Airport. A Congolese army column, led by white mercenaries, has a foothold on the Congo River bank opposite Stanleyville but has halted to await supplies.

basic constitutional and financial integrity if the rule is not applied.

Thant proposed that the assembly, until its Christmas recess, confine itself to matters on which there is unanimous agreement. Thus there would be no roll-call votes on which the Soviet vote could be challenged. Meanwhile, negotiations could be held in an effort to resolve the financial deadlock.

Diplomatic sources said France might scuttle the deal. France falls more than two years behind in her dues next year because she has refused to pay her share of the Congo peacekeeping operation. There was speculation that she would try to force the issue now so that the first fight would come over the Soviet delinquency rather than hers.

Rusk and chief U.S. delegate Adlai E. Stevenson underlined the U.S. stress on the money issue Sunday night as Rusk arrived from Washington. Rusk said the United Nations now faces "constitutional questions which go to the very heart of the organization." Stevenson termed the forthcoming session "critical."

Rusk invited Gromyko to his hotel suite for an extended "working luncheon" with top aides from both nations. Various East-West topics were up for discussion, but U.N. financing was No. 1.

horses drawing the hearse.

The paratroopers beat some 50 mourners off the hearse, including the father of the dead youth, shoved the boy's family into the vehicle and escorted them to the cemetery.

Some of the demonstrators were bloodied but none was seriously injured. Young girls beat and clawed the soldiers, but the mob was swiftly dispersed after the paratroopers marched off with the hearse.

The government had given permission for the funeral but stipulated that only 200 marchers could take part and that the procession follow a route avoiding downtown Saigon. The procession, however, started out with 2,000 marchers and at one point veered toward downtown Saigon.

Officials blamed Viet Cong agents for sending an empty locomotive rolling into Saigon's main station early today. It crashed into a railroad car, killed five persons waiting in the station and injured 11 others.

Tshombe Set For Meeting

PARIS (AP) — Premier Moise Tshombe of the Congo arrived in Paris today for a meeting with President Charles de Gaulle. The African leader is en route to New York for the U.N. General Assembly session.

Tshombe said he has an appointment to see De Gaulle and other French officials Tuesday.

Bareheaded and smiling, Tshombe told airport reporters he considered it safe for him to leave the Congo at this time.

"Things are not going so badly," he said. "We have the situation in hand. The rebellion will be mastered and already we are planning to create three zones for economic recovery: Katanga, the Leopoldville region, and the Stanleyville region. It is time that some thought is given to bringing an end to the misery that the Congolese people have known for four years."

Tshombe declared the Belgian paratroopers who moved into Stanleyville and Paulis were "emergency troops whose actions were authorized by us for humanitarian purposes."

Asked if there was evidence of Red Chinese involvement in the rebellion, Tshombe replied: "We have found Chinese arms among their stocks."

gian paratroopers, fears mounted for the safety of 500 to 1,000 whites still in the rebel-held areas of the northern Congo.

Refugees said the Peking-backed rebels were intent on killing all whites to vent their anger over the paratroop action in Stanleyville and Paulis last week.

The confirmed death toll of white hostages stood at 85, including three American missionaries. Many were slaughtered only minutes before the Belgians arrived.

At least 500 and possibly as many as 1,000 whites are still in rebel areas. A group of several hundred is at Bunia in the north. Many missionaries and plantation managers are scattered singly in isolated communities.

Diplomatic sources in Leopoldville said the Belgian troops were supposed to make one more air drop but it was called off. The sources could not say why. However, the Belgian government had said at the outset it did not expect the operation to last longer than about three days.

One the rebels' victims, American medical missionary Paul Carlson, has been buried beside the church he served in the Congo, his friends reported.

About 300 whites and 1,000 Congolese attended the funeral Saturday at the Church of Christ in Karawa village, in Loubangui Province. His widow and two children were present. They are to leave for the United States within a few days.

Belgium rejected a Soviet charge of aggression as a "propaganda maneuver." Foreign Minister Paul-Henri Spaak said the paratroopers' withdrawal was evidence that Belgium had no desire to reconquer its former Congo territory.

Congolese Premier Moise Tshombe arrived in Paris and said he planned to see President Charles de Gaulle of France Tuesday. Diplomats in Leopoldville said he planned to ask for French technical assistance. He was expected to go to New York Thursday to attend the U.N. General Assembly.

Communist China staged a massive anti-American demonstration by 700,000 in Peking Sunday, pledging support for the Congolese rebels, the New China News Agency reported. Party chairman Mao Tze-tung and Premier Chou En-lai attended.

In Cairo, where students burned the John F. Kennedy Memorial Library on Thanksgiving Day, the government imposed a news blackout on its apology to the United States.

Whereabouts of the rebel leader, Christophe Gbenye, and his lieutenants were unknown. The Middle East News Agency reported in Cairo Saturday that they had entered the south Sudan, north of the Congo. Sudanese officials denied this.

Rebel troops re-entered Paulis as soon as the Belgians left. They also continued to harass Congolese troops guarding Stanleyville Airport. A Congolese army column, led by white mercenaries, has a foothold on the Congo River bank opposite Stanleyville but has halted to await supplies.

Job Corps Camps Set To Begin By January

WASHINGTON (AP) — The director of President Johnson's antipoverty program predicts it will be in full swing by January.

By that time, Sargent Shriver said on NBC's "Meet the Press" Sunday, 22 Job Corps camps will be under construction, the first camps will be open and up to 25,000 volunteers will be enrolled.

Shriver said as many as 500,000 persons may be affected directly by the poverty program in its first year — with millions more affected indirectly.

Santa Hears Midland Tot

After appearing in the annual parade to usher in the Christmas season at Midland Saturday afternoon, Santa Claus got an earful from the youngster above, who took advantage of the opportunity to reel off his list of expected gifts.

Rainy weather held down the size of the parade and the crowd which watched. The parade was sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce.

Named winners of cash prizes were: Ann Rochell and Rick Sanford Dance Studios; Midland Girl Scouts and the Lincoln High School Band.

The entries were judged by the decoration committee, headed by Mrs. R. D. Paisley.

The Christmas street lighting was turned on by the "magic wand" of Tinker Bell, played by Sharon Ordich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Ordich of Penn Ave.

Traffic was handled by Midland police and Civil Defense auxiliary officers.

Several firemen assisted in handing out treats to 600 area youngsters.

Action Slated In Assembly

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Five weeks from today, the 106th Ohio General Assembly goes to work. The 105th General Assembly, which intends to be long gone by then, is hustling back into session today with the goal of finishing in the next couple of weeks.

There even has been talk of finishing up this week, but it doesn't seem likely.

Much of the workload has moved from the House over to the Senate. Senators who, in the nine days of floor sessions so far, have yet to spend a total of eight hours in deliberation at their desks, must decide on:

Legislative reapportionment, congressional redistricting, creating a state university in Cleveland, establishing a medical school at the University of Toledo, liberalizing Aid to Dependent Children of the Unemployed, a proposed $275 million capital improvements bond issue — among others.

Nor is the House, which has passed 14 bills and adopted 13 resolutions to date, off the hook. Representatives still must grapple with salary increases for judges, county officials and state legislators; proposed four-year terms (instead of two) for House members and annual sessions of the legislature; easing the way for cities to raise municipal income taxes above one per cent; regulating oil drilling, and changes in setting up port authorities.

Rights Group Divided As 2 Backers Quit

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — The united civil rights front in Mississippi has been ruptured.

The Council of Federated Organizations is no longer backed by its two biggest, richest, more moderate members.

Now counted out of COFO are the National Association for the Advancement of Colored people and the Rev. Martin Luther King's Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

Officials of the NAACP and SCLC were not available for comment.

Remaining in COFO are the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee and the Congress of Racial Equality.

SNCC and CORE, in the main, are made up of younger, more passionate, more impatient members. There have been several open policy conflicts involving these and the more cautious NAACP.

COFO faltered after the rupture, shutting down its Jackson headquarters for a week, but reopened on a curtailed basis a few days ago.

David Dennis, assistant program director for COFO's Mississippi Project, called a news conference Sunday to deny reports that COFO will soon fade away.

"Absolutely and completely false," said Dennis.

The denial came after a New Orleans newspaper, the Times-Picayune, said COFO had fallen upon lean days financially and also had attracted "a group of radical, Marxist-leaning kids whom local Negro leaders will no longer tolerate."

Dennis said he expects more volunteers to join the movement next summer than during COFO's hectic summer program this year.

Dennis said he knew of no one who had been shaken out of COFO because of questionable loyalty to the United States.

Brakes Cited After Truck Hits Cruiser

Faulty brakes were blamed in part for a collision in East End Saturday that caused minor damage to a fender of a halted police cruiser, officers reported.

The mishap scraped the paint on the right rear fender of a 1964 model cruiser operated by Patrolman John A. Walsh, 26, police said. The police car was hit at 10:52 a. m. at Pennsylvania Ave. and Boyce St. by a 1949 model truck driven by Earl Anderson, 59, of Industry R. D. 1, officers said.

Both vehicles were headed west. Anderson said the brakes on his truck were not operating properly, so he pulled into the right lane alongside the halted cruiser and in making the maneuver his truck scraped the police car.

Officer Walsh corroborated Anderson's report, as did a witness, Leslie Champion, 510 Knowles Ln., Chester, officers said. The officer said he was halted for a traffic signal. Capt. Robert Pyle and Jerry F. Adkins, who investigated, said there was no damage to Anderson's truck.

Another mishap on Pennsylvania Ave. 50 feet east of State St. Saturday at 1:58 p. m. damaged a 1959 four-door sedan driven by John F. Morris, 66, of Dixonville and a 1957 two-door coupe operated by Keith W. Downard, 28, of 220 Carolina Ave., Maplewood, officers said.

Morris told police he was attempting to make a right turn onto State St. from Pennsylvania Ave. when his car was hit on the right rear by Downard's car. Downard said he was traveling west on Pennsylvania Ave. and attempted to stop for traffic, but his brakes failed and he hit Morris' car. Downard said he pulled onto the right berm and his car went into a ditch.

There was damage to the right rear fender and bumper of the Morris car and both front fenders and the bumper of the Downard car, police said.

Two cars were damaged and a young driver was cited in a collision Sunday at 9:30 p. m. on Park Way at Pennsylvania Ave., police said.

The mishap involved a 1959 model convertible driven by George Junior Davis, 18, of 305 Gardendale Ave. and a 1954 two-door sedan operated by George E. Bailey, 20, of Dixonville.

Davis told police as he turned off Pennsylvania Ave. onto Park Way a dog ran in front of his car and he applied his brakes to avoid striking the animal. Bailey told officers he was unable to halt in time to avoid hitting the Davis auto. The crash damaged the rear of the Davis auto and the front of the Bailey car, police said.

Bailey was cited on a charge of failure to stop in the assured clear distance.

Bailey was fined $25 and costs today after pleading guilty before Acting Municipal Judge Paul Tobin.

Another mishap was timed Saturday at 5:08 p. m. on W. 6th St. at Peach Alley.

It involved a 1959 four-door sedan driven by Sue E. Vinovich of Park Pl., N., Midland, and a 1965 two-door sedan operated by Jack R. Sayre, 21, of 514 Broadway, Wellsville, police said.

The Midland woman said she was pulling onto W. 6th from the Alley and her car was hit by Sayre's. The Wellsville driver said the Midland woman pulled out of the alley and hit his car. There was no damage to the Midland car, but the right rear bumper of Sayre's car was damaged, police said.

Davis Position On Tax Misstated By Mistake

The position of Councilman William Davis in voting for immediate enactment of the city income tax ordinance Friday night was misstated in an account of the Council meeting in Saturday's Review because of a typographical error that left out one vital word.

The councilman said he had not changed his position that the public should be allowed to vote on continuation of the tax, but supported the ordinance so it would not be necessary for him and his fellow members to hold at least one more special meeting on the legislation when its enactment was only a matter of time.

An error that eliminated the word "not" from the councilman's statement made it appear he favored another special meeting when exactly the reverse was true.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Heloise: I was experimenting with your suggestion to sew on buttons with the sewing machine by removing the foot feed and turning the wheel with your hand and allowing the stitches to go back and forth through the holes in the button.

However, I found that my cloth sometimes got caught on the feed when sliding the button back and forth. . . .

So I took the feed cover plate from my buttonhole attachment and covered the feed of the machine. It enables me to guide the button back and forth with more ease without snagging the material on the machine.

MRS. L. LUSSIER.

DEAR HELOISE: My dining room table used to be very hard to open when I wanted to put in extra leaves.

I waxed the pegs and now the table opens and closes easily.

RACHEL PATTERSON.

I hope my mother reads this hint!

How well I remember all the strain and contortions involved in getting our big dining room table open to put in those extra leaves when company was comin' . . .

HELOISE

DEAR HELOISE: It is unbelievable the amount of goop from baby cereal, strained fruit and vegetables that can collect on a high chair or baby table.

I really think it would be a superior glue!

MRS. J. M.

DEAR HELOISE: I use white candles in my candlesticks but . . . to take away from the stark whiteness, I marbelize them with ordinary kitchen matches.

I twirl the candles as I hold a lightened match under them, and it gives them a smoked effect.

EVELYN DRACHLER.

You're a dolly to figure out that one! I just tried it with a "gopher" match (light-one-and - fo - for - another) and it's beautiful. The candle, not the match.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: To keep house plants watered while you are away, cut a strip of cloth 2 inches wide and 2 feet long. Put one end of the strip in a pail of water which is set higher than the plant, and bury the other end of the strip in the soil of the plant.

This is good for about a week. The water will gently seep down into the plant.

BILLIE.

DEAR HELOISE: I'm handicapped and have found a good use for those plastic catsup and mustard containers.

They are just the thing for putting water into my steam iron. No spilled water when trying to fill the steam iron now!

Do you have any more shortcuts for the handicapped? Maybe other handicapped people will write in and let you know a few things they have tried?

J. J. E.

DEAR M. J. E.: How sweet of you to let us know about the steam iron. It's a fantastic idea. The little thin stream of water squirts into the iron beautifully.

Let's all help each other. Anyone have any more ideas? If so, please write to Heloise in care of this paper.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: When I buy a jar of instant coffee, I find that the coffee becomes hard if it isn't used soon.

I cut a piece of plastic from a drycleaner's bag and put it on top of the jar, then screw the top on tight over the plastic.

It goes on easily and serves the same purpose as the round piece of waxed paper which is stuck on the jar when you first open it.

JEAN ROSEMAN.

Heloise welcomes all mail, especially household hints which she can pass on to readers as space permits. However, because of the tremendous volume of mail she receives daily, Heloise is unable to answer all individual letters. She will answer readers' questions in her column whenever possible.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Teen-Ager's Hunger Isn't For Food

A teenager has written an account of her weight woes, with simple honesty. While her problem appears to stem from the habit of overeating, ingrained at a time when she was lonely, there is more to it than that. Her letter, condensed:

Ida Jean Kain

"It is hard to explain what my problem actually is. A year ago when our family moved across country I took out my shyness and problems in school (not studies, but meeting people) in overeating. I knew no one, so spent the whole lunch hour alone — eating. When I got home I would gorge. I have always liked to eat, but it was never a compulsion until this last move.

"I AM now settled in school, so my reason for stuffing has been taken away. I went on a diet, lost 20 pounds, but over the summer put the pounds back on, plus more. Now, for no apparent reason, I go into these times when I gorge. If I veer from my diet a tiny bit, I go hog wild.

"Why do I eat this way? It's not because I'm hungry. It seems like I'm a food addict. My weight is giving me an inferiority complex, which is no help to my shyness."

Your letter reveals that you have difficulty in finding a comfortable way of relating to others. You try to make out that everything is fine now. Obviously it is not, for you are suffering inwardly from an unsatisfied "hunger." Your true hunger is for warm, happy friendships. You can go along for awhile, then you get to feeling desperate.

What to do? Take your courage in hand and make a real effort to get into activities. You need friends, stimulating interests and other forms of satisfactions outside the home. Unless you take measures to fulfill your inner longings, you will be subject to these desperate periods and pressures.

BE ALERT to the fact that you are attempting to assuage your inner emptiness with food. What you are missing can't be fixed with food. As you state in your letter, when you are dieting you feel happy, at peace with yourself, with your mother and with God. But because you are not taking measures to fill the void of companionship in your life, these desperate feelings crop up periodically and you feel compelled to gorge.

Now here is the encouraging part. When you make an effort to get into activities, other opportunities will present themselves. Slimming down will make an enormous difference, too.

If you cannot get going on your own, seek professional help. A session or two with the school counselor or a specialist can give you needed enlightenment. This will not be a drawn-out process. You are young and flexible. . .and eager for life. Bless you, honey!

Send stamped, self-addressed, long envelope for Teen - Age Challenge. Address request to Ida Jean Kain, care of The Review.

Parley Resumes In Paper Strike

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—Negotiations have resumed in Albany's newspaper strike, but management and labor spokesmen disagreed as to how much progress was made. They headed toward a court meeting today.

Gene Robb, publisher of the Morning Times-Union and afternoon Knickerbocker News, said he believed "substantial progress" was made toward settlement of the nine-day strike in 2½ hours of negotiations Sunday.

Spokesmen for the AFL-CIO American Newspaper Guild, however, said Robb had not attended the meetings, and they declared that "absolutely no progress" has been made.

Issues in the strike center on working hours, contract length and salary and benefit increases.

Increases Reported In Federal Workers

WASHINGTON (AP) — Federal civilian employment increased 8,954 in October to a total of 2,470,330, the Senate-House Committee on Reduction of Non-Essential Federal Expenditures reported today.

The largest increases during the month were in the Post Office Department, with a jump of 8,820, and the Commerce Department, with 1,685, the committee said.

The biggest decreases were in the Army, which cut its civilian payroll 1,733, and the Interior Department, with a 907 drop.

Army Links 2 Defectors To Soviet Agents

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two European-born U.S. soldiers who defected to the Soviet Union more than four years ago were disclosed today to have had prior connections with the Soviet secret police.

The two, both World War II displaced persons, were stationed in West Germany with U.S. Army units when they crossed over to the Russians separately in the summer of 1960. Their defection and identities were disclosed then, but not their prior connection with the Soviet secret police.

One was Vladimir Sloboda, a native of the Ukraine, who is now 37. The other was Joseph Dutkanicz, a native of Poland who died a year ago today at the age of 37.

Their defection was mentioned two months ago in the Warren Commission's report on the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

In discussing Soviet defection procedures — Lee Harvey Oswald, Kennedy's assassin, had defected to the Soviet Union after leaving the U.S. Marine Corps — the commission report quoted the Central Intelligence Agency:

"Two defectors from U.S. Army intelligence units in West Germany appeared to have been given citizenship immediately, but both had prior KGB (Russian secret police) connections and fled as a result of Army security checks."

The CIA did not identify the two defectors in the Warren report.

Pierre and Marie Curie managed to separate one gram of radium from eight tons of pitchblende.

Income Questionnaires Due For Disabled Vets, Widows

More than 48,000 disabled veterans or the widows and parents of deceased veterans in the 38 Northern Ohio counties under the jurisdiction of the Cleveland Regional Office of the Veterans Administration will again receive income questionnaire cards with their November pension checks this week, William R. Blackwell, director, said today.

Instructions for completing these cards will also be enclosed with November pension checks.

For the first time, children receiving pension payments will not receive nor be expected to file income questionnaire cards this year.

Some 24,000 of these same disable veterans or the widows of deceased veterans who are still under what is called the old or protected pension plan have just recently received an election card so that they may change to the new pension law.

Persons electing to come under the new pension law which was enacted in 1960, are urged to return the election card and the income questionnaire card in the same envelope to speed processing. Return of the election card without the income questionnaire card will not be sufficient to meet the requirements of the law for continued pension benefits.

Return of the income questionnaire card is a must even though a person may or may not elect to file for benefits under the new pension law as amended, Blackwell said.

Pensioners are also reminded that they must report the full amount of all income received regardless of source. The Veterans Administration will give full credit for any income excluded by law. Retirement income, for example, must be reported in the full amount received and the VA will compute the amount that does not count.

Income questionnaire cards must be filled out, signed, and returned to the Veterans Administration by Jan. 31, 1965, or, under the law, February pension checks must be suspended. Blackwell urged that the cards be returned without delay and not to lay them aside until the last minute.

Ground To Be Broken For Capital Art Center

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson will wield the gold-plated spade that broke ground for the Jefferson and Lincoln memorials when he breaks ground Wednesday for Washington's John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts.

Sen.-elect Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., will represent the family of the late president. Portions of Kennedy's speeches and his favorite passage from Shakespeare will be read by actors Jason Robards Jr. and Sir John Gielgud.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Heloise: I was experimenting with your suggestion to sew on buttons with the sewing machine by removing the foot feed and turning the wheel with your hand and allowing the stitches to go back and forth through the holes in the button.

However, I found that my cloth sometimes got caught on the feed when sliding the button back and forth. . . .

So I took the feed cover plate from my buttonhole attachment and covered the feed of the machine. It enables me to guide the button back and forth with more ease without snagging the material on the machine.

MRS. L. LUSSIER.

DEAR HELOISE: My dining room table used to be very hard to open when I wanted to put in extra leaves.

I waxed the pegs and now the table opens and closes easily.

RACHEL PATTERSON.

I hope my mother reads this hint!

How well I remember all the strain and contortions involved in getting our big dining room table open to put in those extra leaves when company was comin' . . .

HELOISE

DEAR HELOISE: It is unbelievable the amount of goop from baby cereal, strained fruit and vegetables that can collect on a high chair or baby table.

I really think it would be a superior glue!

MRS. J. M.

DEAR HELOISE: I use white candies in my candlesticks but . . . to take away from the stark whiteness, I marbelize them with ordinary kitchen matches.

I twirl the candles as I hold a lightened match under them, and it gives them a smoked effect.

EVELYN DRACHLER.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: To keep house plants watered while you are away, cut a strip of cloth 2 inches wide and 2 feet long. Put one end of the strip in a pail of water which is set higher than the plant, and bury the other end of the strip in the soil of the plant.

This is good for about a week. The water will gently seep down into the plant.

BILLIE.

DEAR HELOISE: I'm handicapped and have found a good use for those plastic catsup and mustard containers.

They are just the thing for putting water into my steam iron. No spilled water when trying to fill the steam iron now!

Do you have any more shortcuts for the handicapped? Maybe other handicapped people will write in and let you know a few things they have tried?

J. J. E.

DEAR M. J. E.: How sweet of you to let us know about the steam iron. It's a fantastic idea. The little thin stream of water squirts into the iron beautifully.

Let's all help each other. Anyone have any more ideas? If so, please write to Heloise in care of this paper.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: When I buy a jar of instant coffee, I find that the coffee becomes hard if it isn't used soon.

I cut a piece of plastic from a drycleaner's bag and put it on top of the jar, then screw the top on tight over the plastic.

It goes on easily and serves the same purpose as the round piece of waxed paper which is stuck on the jar when you first open it.

JEAN ROSEMAN.

Heloise welcomes all mail, especially household hints which she can pass on to readers as space permits. However, because of the tremendous volume of mail she receives daily, Heloise is unable to answer all individual letters. She will answer readers' questions in her column whenever possible.

Keep In Trim

Teen-Ager's Hunger Isn't For Food

A teenager has written an account of her weight woes, with simple honesty. While her problem appears to stem from the habit of overeating, ingrained at a time when she was lonely, there is more to it than that. Her letter, condensed:

Ida Jean Kain

"It is hard to explain what my problem actually is. A year ago when our family moved across country I took out my shyness and problems in school (not studies, but meeting people) in overeating. I knew no one, so spent the whole lunch hour alone — eating. When I got home I would gorge. I have always liked to eat, but it was never a compulsion until this last move.

"I AM now settled in school, so my reason for stuffing has been taken away. I went on a diet, lost 20 pounds, but over the summer put the pounds back on, plus more. Now, for no apparent reason, I go into these times when I gorge. If I veer from my diet a tiny bit, I go hog wild.

"Why do I eat this way? It's not because I'm hungry. It seems like I'm a food addict. My weight is giving me an inferiority complex, which is no help to my shyness."

Your letter reveals that you have difficulty in finding a comfortable way of relating to others. You try to make out that everything is fine now. Obviously it is not, for you are suffering inwardly from an unsatisfied "hunger." Your true hunger is for warm, happy friendships. You can go along for awhile, then you get to feeling desperate.

What to do? Take your courage in hand and make a real effort to get into activities. You need friends, stimulating interests and other forms of satisfactions outside the home. Unless you take measures to fulfill your inner longings, you will be subject to these desperate periods and pressures.

BE ALERT to the fact that you are attempting to assuage your inner emptiness with food. What you are missing can't be fixed with food. As you state in your letter, when you are dieting you feel happy, at peace with yourself, with your mother and with God. But because you are not taking measures to fill the void of companionship in your life, these desperate feelings crop up periodically and you feel compelled to gorge.

Now here is the encouraging part. When you make an effort to get into activities, other opportunities will present themselves. Slimming down will make an enormous difference, too.

If you cannot get going on your own, seek professional help. A session or two with the school counselor or a specialist can give you needed enlightenment. This will not be a drawn-out process. You are young and flexible. . .and eager for life. Bless you, honey!

Parley Resumes In Paper Strike

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—Negotiations have resumed in Albany's newspaper strike, but management and labor spokesmen disagreed as to how much progress was made. They headed toward a court meeting today.

Gene Robb, publisher of the Morning Times-Union and afternoon Knickerbocker News, said he believed "substantial progress" was made toward settlement of the nine-day strike in 2½ hours of negotiations Sunday.

Spokesmen for the AFL-CIO American Newspaper Guild, however, said Robb had not attended the meetings, and they declared that "absolutely no progress" has been made.

Issues in the strike center on working hours, contract length and salary and benefit increases.

Increases Reported In Federal Workers

WASHINGTON (AP) — Federal civilian employment increased 8,954 in October to a total of 2,470,330, the Senate-House Committee on Reduction of Non-Essential Federal Expenditures reported today.

The largest increases during the month were in the Post Office Department, with a jump of 8,820, and the Commerce Department, with 1,685, the committee said.

The biggest decreases were in the Army, which cut its civilian payroll 1,733, and the Interior Department, with a 907 drop.

Army Links 2 Defectors To Soviet Agents

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two European-born U.S. soldiers who defected to the Soviet Union more than four years ago were disclosed today to have had prior connections with the Soviet secret police.

The two, both World War II displaced persons, were stationed in West Germany with U.S. Army units when they crossed over to the Russians separately in the summer of 1960. Their defection and identities were disclosed then, but not their prior connection with the Soviet secret police.

One was Vladimir Sloboda, a native of the Ukraine, who is now 37. The other was Joseph Dutkanicz, a native of Poland who died a year ago today at the age of 37.

Their defection was mentioned two months ago in the Warren Commission's report on the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

In discussing Soviet defection procedures — Lee Harvey Oswald, Kennedy's assassin, had defected to the Soviet Union after leaving the U.S. Marine Corps — the commission report quoted the Central Intelligence Agency:

"Two defectors from U.S. Army intelligence units in West Germany appeared to have been given citizenship immediately, but both had prior KGB (Russian secret police) connections and fled as a result of Army security checks."

The CIA did not identify the two defectors in the Warren report.

Income Questionnaires Due For Disabled Vets, Widows

More than 48,000 disabled veterans or the widows and parents of deceased veterans in the 38 Northern Ohio counties under the jurisdiction of the Cleveland Regional Office of the Veterans Administration will again receive income questionnaire cards with their November pension checks this week, William R. Blackwell, director, said today.

Instructions for completing these cards will also be enclosed with November pension checks.

For the first time, children receiving pension payments will not receive nor be expected to file income questionnaire cards this year.

Some 24,000 of these same disable veterans or the widows of deceased veterans who are still under what is called the old or protected pension plan have just recently received an election card so that they may change to the new pension law.

Persons electing to come under the new pension law which was enacted in 1960, are urged to return the election card and the income questionnaire card in the same envelope to speed processing. Return of the election card without the income questionnaire card will not be sufficient to meet the requirements of the law for continued pension benefits.

Return of the income questionnaire card is a must even though a person may or may not elect to file for benefits under the new pension law as amended, Blackwell said.

Pensioners are also reminded that they must report the full amount of all income received regardless of source. The Veterans Administration will give full credit for any income excluded by law. Retirement income, for example, must be reported in the full amount received and the VA will compute the amount that does not count.

Income questionnaire cards must be filled out, signed, and returned to the Veterans Administration by Jan. 31, 1965, or, under the law, February pension checks must be suspended. Blackwell urged that the cards be returned without delay and not to lay them aside until the last minute.

Ground To Be Broken For Capital Art Center

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson will wield the gold-plated spade that broke ground for the Jefferson and Lincoln memorials when he breaks ground Wednesday for Washington's John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts.

Sen.-elect Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., will represent the family of the late president. Portions of Kennedy's speeches and his favorite passage from Shakespeare will be read by actors Jason Robards Jr. and Sir John Gielgud.

Buffalo Help Pin Down Viet Armed Force

VAICO Oriental River, South Viet Nam (AP) — Waves of yelling Viet Cong and seven wild buffalo pinned down government infantry units in this swampy sugar cane region before they fought their way clear.

The Viet Cong and the buffalo were driven off as Viet Nam's long war continued even though the civilian government was in peril in Saigon a bare 15 miles away.

The Red guerrillas launched three attacks Sunday against one infantry battalion bogged down in three feet of water. Government losses were four killed and 13 wounded.

The Viet Cong had higher casualties in the three-hour long battle. Fifteen of their bodies were counted along canals and many more were reported carried away.

The attack by seven wild buffalo against a reconnaissance company was an unexpected development. Two of the beasts were killed as they closed with infantrymen running for cover. One soldier was gored.

Capt. Thomas H. Baker from Mineral Wells, Tex., was the U.S. adviser to the Vietnamese unit that took three Communist assaults Sunday afternoon. It recoiled under the impact of the first but withstood the next two and with the help of artillery and helicopter strikes drove the Viet Cong off.

On Monday, Baker's unit along with other 25th Division forces were pulling out of this winding river area that had not been penetrated by government troops for more than a year.

Farm Leader Taken

SIDNEY, Ohio (AP)—Funeral services for William R. Joslin, Ohio farm leader in rural electrification, are scheduled for 2 p. m. here Tuesday. Joslin died Saturday of a heart ailment.

Police Catch Escaped Burglary Suspect, 41

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP)—Accused burglar James F. Harkins, was back behind bars in the Butler County Jail today after a day's freedom.

Police arrested Harkins, 41, Middletown, about noon Sunday after a chase in a car they said had been stolen. They said he was armed with a .32 - caliber pistol but offered no resistance when officers cornered him in an alley.

Harkins escaped from Mercy Hospital early Saturday. Police said he apparently used a ball point pen and a part of a bed spring to open the handcuffs shackling him to the bed by one hand and one foot. He had been taken to the hospital Friday night for medical treatment.

Chiffonade salad dressing is often found on the menus of fine hotel restaurants. Why not make it at home? You can do so by adding finely chopped hard-cooked egg and cooked beets to French dressing.

Buffalo Help Pin Down Viet Armed Force

VAICO Oriental River, South Viet Nam (AP) — Waves of yelling Viet Cong and seven wild buffalo pinned down government infantry units in this swampy sugar cane region before they fought their way clear.

The Viet Cong and the buffalo were driven off as Viet Nam's long war continued even though the civilian government was in peril in Saigon a bare 15 miles away.

The Red guerrillas launched three attacks Sunday against one infantry battalion bogged down in three feet of water. Government losses were four killed and 13 wounded.

The Viet Cong had higher casualties in the three-hour long battle. Fifteen of their bodies were counted along canals and many more were reported carried away.

The attack by seven wild buffalo against a reconnaissance company was an unexpected development. Two of the beasts were killed as they closed with infantrymen running for cover. One soldier was gored.

Capt. Thomas H. Baker from Mineral Wells, Tex., was the U.S. adviser to the Vietnamese unit that took three Communist assaults Sunday afternoon. It recoiled under the impact of the first but withstood the next two and with the help of artillery and helicopter strikes drove the Viet Cong off.

On Monday, Baker's unit along with other 25th Division forces were pulling out of this winding river area that had not been penetrated by government troops for more than a year.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: My husband and I are having a heated argument and neither of us will give an inch. Can you settle it?

I'm becoming increasingly distressed about the indifference of our society to brutality and death. Fourteen and 15-year-olds bludgeon innocent victims with pieces of pipe. When questioned, they say they don't know why they did it. In some instances the murderer didn't even know his victim.

Heart-broken and bewildered parents report, "He was always a good child." Teachers add, "He was the sort of boy who never caused any trouble."

What is happening? I say the daily diet of killing on TV compounded by the use of guns as toys makes murder commonplace. Children are confused. Values are blurred. They don't know when the game ends and real killing begins.

My husband wants to buy our 5- and 7-year-old sons toy guns, chaps and cowboy hats for Christmas. I say "No Guns." He says guns are a part of a boy's growing up and that I am some kind of a nut to deprive our sons of boyhood fun.

What do you say, Ann Landers? — BATTLING FOR SANITY.

Dear Battling: I'm with you but I don't buy the theory that toy guns and TV will make killers out of healthy, normal children. The trouble goes back much further. I do agree that constructive TV shows and creative toys are infinitely better for children and I would not buy a toy gun for a child.

The American Friends Service Committee (Quakers) distributed an essay which echoes, faithfully, my sentiments:

Violence is abroad in our land.

Dogs are turned on humans—

Murder is with us in the headlines and TV.

Homes are bombed in the North,

Children in church are killed in the South.

We rely on weapons of annihilation to secure our "way of life."

Violence is so commonplace in our lives that we hardly notice it—

Until finally, our young and vital President is killed

By an assassin's bullet.

Setting off a chain of even more violence.

And we are ashamed.

Let us begin to question the violence of our lives.

Let us bring love and understanding to our families.

Let us begin with our children.

Ought we supply them with the toys that make violence so commonplace—

The gun, the tank, the rocket,

Rather than tools, paints, or books of other lands?

If we buy only creative toys this Christmas

It can be a beginning—

A symbol of our rejection of violence.

In memoriam to our late President,

In keeping with Christmas as a time of peace and love.

Let us begin by this small act.

If each of us does not do this—who will?

If not now—when?

Driver's Seat

Dear Ann: When a husband and wife are in a car together and the wife is driving, what does it mean? I say it means the wife is in the driver's seat literally as well as figuratively.

Am I right or wrong about this?—D.R.T.

Dear D.R.T.: When the wife drives it could mean(1) she likes to drive and he doesn't. (2) Doctor's orders. (3) He's tired and she isn't. (4) He's stoned and she's sober.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of the Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Sen. Scott Sees Bliss As GOP's Party Chairman

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., says he believes Republican National Chairman Dean Burch will soon vacate his position or will be bypassed by the national committee.

And Scott says he considers Ohio GOP Chairman Ray Bliss to be best fitted to replace Burch at the national post. Bliss also is a Republican national committeeman.

Scott, interviewed while vacationing in Honolulu, said that Burch, personal selection of Barry Goldwater for the national chairmanship, should resign in view of the "debacle" on Nov. 3.

He said he would favor selection of "a professional, acceptable to a broad consensus of the party and chosen for his ability to put together winning candidates and winning programs factional ideology." He feels Bliss fits this definition, Scott added.

The Pennsylvania congressman also said he believes any attempt to unseat California Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel as minority leader in the new Congress would be defeated. Rumors have circulated that Kuchel would be forced out by conservative factions because he did not support Goldwater in presidential campaign.

Another Fish Story

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Fishermen say that occasionally a bass will strike at just about anything. But the bass near here seem to have gone beyond the limit. They hit viciously at a homemade plug fashioned out of a spoon decorated with a tail of metal foil Christmas tree icicles. Oldtimers said they'd never seen anything like it for slaying the bass.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: My husband and I are having a heated argument and neither of us will give an inch. Can you settle it?

I'm becoming increasingly distressed about the indifference of our society to brutality and death. Fourteen and 15-year-olds bludgeon innocent victims with pieces of pipe. When questioned, they say they don't know why they did it. In some instances the murderer didn't even know his victim.

Heart-broken and bewildered parents report, "He was always a good child." Teachers add, "He was the sort of boy who never caused any trouble."

What is happening? I say the daily diet of killing on TV compounded by the use of guns as toys makes murder commonplace. Children are confused. Values are blurred. They don't know when the game ends and real killing begins.

My husband wants to buy our 5- and 7-year-old sons toy guns, chaps and cowboy hats for Christmas. I say "No Guns." He says guns are a part of a boy's growing up and that I am some kind of a nut to deprive our sons of boyhood fun.

What do you say, Ann Landers? — BATTLING FOR SANITY.

Dear Battling: I'm with you but I don't buy the theory that toy guns and TV will make killers out of healthy, normal children. The trouble goes back much further. I do agree that constructive TV shows and creative toys are infinitely better for children and I would not buy a toy gun for a child.

The American Friends Service Committee (Quakers) distributed an essay which echoes, faithfully, my sentiments:

Violence is abroad in our land.

Dogs are turned on humans—

Murder is with us in the headlines and TV.

Homes are bombed in the North.

Children in church are killed in the South.

We rely on weapons of annihilation to secure our "way of life."

Violence is so commonplace in our lives that we hardly notice it—

Until finally, our young and vital President is killed

By an assassin's bullet.

Setting off a chain of even more violence.

And we are ashamed.

Let us begin to question the violence of our lives.

Let us bring love and understanding to our families.

Let us begin with our children.

Ought we supply them with the toys that make violence so commonplace—

The gun, the tank, the rocket,

Rather than tools, paints, or books of other lands?

If we buy only creative toys this Christmas

It can be a beginning—

A symbol of our rejection of violence.

In memoriam to our late President,

In keeping with Christmas as a time of peace and love.

Let us begin by this small act.

If each of us does not do this—who will?

Driver's Seat

Dear Ann: When a husband and wife are in a car together and the wife is driving, what does it mean? I say it means the wife is in the driver's seat literally as well as figuratively.

Am I right or wrong about this?—D.R.T.

Dear D.R.T.: When the wife drives it could mean(1) she likes to drive and he doesn't. (2) Doctor's orders. (3) He's tired and she isn't. (4) He's stoned and she's sober.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of the Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Sen. Scott Sees Bliss As GOP's Party Chairman

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., says he believes Republican National Chairman Dean Burch will soon vacate his position or will be bypassed by the national committee.

And Scott says he considers Ohio GOP Chairman Ray Bliss to be best fitted to replace Burch at the national post. Bliss also is a Republican national committeeman.

Scott, interviewed while vacationing in Honolulu, said that Burch, personal selection of Barry Goldwater for the national chairmanship, should resign in view of the "debacle" on Nov. 3.

He said he would favor selection of "a professional, acceptable to a broad consensus of the party and chosen for his ability to put together winning candidates and winning programs factional ideology." He feels Bliss fits this definition, Scott added.

The Pennsylvania congressman also said he believes any attempt to unseat California Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel as minority leader in the new Congress would be defeated. Rumors have circulated that Kuchel would be forced out by conservative factions because he did not support Goldwater in presidential campaign.

Another Fish Story

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Fishermen say that occasionally a bass will strike at just about anything. But the bass near here seem to have gone beyond the limit. They hit viciously at a homemade plug fashioned out of a spoon decorated with a tail of metal foil Christmas tree icicles. Oldtimers said they'd never seen anything like it for slaying the bass.

Bringing Up A Family

By DR. GARRY MYERS

Gifts Exchanged At Feast Of Lights

Special Jewish celebrations are significant in family life. They occasion the coming together from great distances of members of the family and other relatives. They help keep alive family traditions and religious interests. The frequency with which news media generously take account of these celebrations bespeaks the high regard in which the public holds them. Such news accounts stimulate pride in the hearts of children and their parents who participate in these celebrations and make all of us aware of their contribution to our American heritage.

Dr. Garry Myers

Public information about these celebrations with their spiritual emphasis widens the education of the adults and children who are not Jewish. How fine it is for children brought up in Christian homes also to grow familiar with the religious nature and family practices in Jewish synagogues and homes.

AND SINCE so much of the Sunday school and church literature of Christian people is based on Jewish backgrounds, why should not practically all children in their religious education grow familiar with these special Jewish celebrations? And not just for enriching their education, but also for cultivating a warmer, kindlier, more appreciative understanding and feeling in them—for furthering brotherhood.

An outstanding Jewish celebration which comes around our Christmas time is Hanukkah, which starts today. A few words here about the purpose and nature of Hanukkah: Jews all over the world celebrate Hanukkah, which means dedication. This festival, often known as the Feast of Lights, lasts for eight days. Every night during this festival the father of the home lights the candles in a special candelabra called the Menorah. The first night one candle is lighted, the second night two candles, and so on, until eight candles are kindled on the last night of the festival.

Each night children receive gifts. They are told the story of Hanukkah, the dedication of the Temple in Jerusalem hundreds and hundreds of years ago, after it had been regained from the cruel king Antiochus, and restored. These children are reminded of the great heroes of the past who saved their people from enemies.

There are special services in the synagogues. During these services a large Menorah is burning bright and psalms are said to thank God for all his goodness. At home, when the candles are lighted, everyone sings the special Chanukah song:

Yours the message cheering
That the time is nearing,
Which will see
All men free,
Tyrants disappearing.

U.N. Faces Red China's Entry Again

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The specter of Red China bulks big over the U.N. General Assembly opening Tuesday.

Communist China's new role as a nuclear power, the question of its right to China's seat in the assembly and to the Security Council veto, its threat of domination in Southeast Asia, its infiltration in Europe, Africa, the Middle East and Latin America — all these things will color the debates of the 115 nations almost from the opening through 15 weeks until the scheduled end March 5.

Nationalist China, with strong U.S. support, has managed to hold the China seat despite a mounting demand for Red China representation over the years.

Condemned for the part it played against U.N. forces in the Korean War, Red China has been thrust back year after year with the slogan that it must not be allowed to shoot its way into the United Nations.

This year it has a nuclear weapon, the device it exploded early this fall, and its supporters are saying no universal disarmament program can be effective unless the Chinese Communists are represented in the U.N. debates on disarmament and in the U.N.-sponsored Disarmament Committee of 18.

This argument has been added to the previous contention that a nation of 650 million or more — one-quarter of the world's population — must be heard in U.N. discussions.

Secretary-General U Thant has used those arguments. Britain has voted for Red China's seating. France this year recognized the Peking government and is expected to swing strongly in favor of a move by seven nations to make the seating question a major issue for debate in the full assembly.

Cambodia, Indonesia, Mali, Congo Brazzaville, Mali, Guinea and Albania are sparking the new drive to seat the Communists.

The United States still voices confidence it can head off the drive, but U.N. diplomats feel this may be the last year the Chinese Reds can be stopped.

The assembly opens Tuesday with its present complement of 112 members on the customary note of silent prayer or meditation for one minute.

Sometime during the opening session it is expected a point of order will be raised to insure speedy admission of Malwai (formerly Nyasaland), Malta and Zambia (Formerly Northern Rhodesia) into membership, raising the membership total to 115.

Browns Face Cards In Eastern Division Showdown

Defense Sets Up Win Over Eagles

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Cleveland's scrambling defense has tied Jimmy Brown in the scoring column and has moved the Browns to within one game of playing Baltimore for the National Football League championship.

The defense scored three touchdowns in the first half Sunday, triggering Cleveland to a 38-24 victory over Philadelphia. A Cleveland triumph or a tie against St. Louis next Sunday would give the Browns their first Eastern Conference Crown since 1957.

Brown, the league's leading rusher, needed one touchdown to tie Don Hutson's NFL career record of 105 but failed to get it. That left him with eight for the season, the same number the defense now has tallied.

The Browns barely had finished their warmups when they had their first touchdown.

Philadelphia's Tim Brown bobbled the opening kickoff on his 14-yard line, and the ball bounced back into the end zone where Roger Shoals fell on it 18 seconds after the start of the game.

In the second quarter, rookie Sid Williams burst through the Eagle line and blocked Sam Baker's punt at the two. He then fell on the ball in the end zone for Cleveland's second touchdown.

In other games, St. Louis nipped Pittsburgh 21-20, Baltimore defeated San Francisco 14-3, Green Bay walloped Dallas 45-21, Minnesota whipped Los Angeles 34-13 and Washington dumped New York 36-21.

St. Louis, trailing 20-7 in the fourth quarter, halted a 13-game losing streak in Pittsburgh, winning its first game there since 1948.

Pat Fischer climaxed the Cardinals' comeback by racing 49 yards with John Henry Johnson's fumble late in the period.

Baltimore, which clinched the Western title last week, won its 11th straight game, and Lenny Moore tallied a touchdown in his 15th consecutive contest. Moore smashed across from the two after Lou Michaels had recovered John Brodie's fumble on the previous play.

Henry Jordan ran 60 yards with a fumble, and Lionel Aldridge scored from 29 yards out with a loose ball for two Green Bay touchdowns. Bart Starr passed for three others and scored a fourth himself. Dallas never led in the game.

Minnesota built a commanding 17-3 lead in the first half against the Rams. Fran Tarkenton threw touchdown passes of 15 yards to Paul Flatley and 13 yards to Bill Brown while Fred Cox booted a 16-yard field goal.

Washington's Sonny Jurgensen increased his league-leading touchdown pass total to 24 with four against the Giants, two to Bobby Mitchell. Rookie Paul Krause set a league record by intercepting at least one pass in his seventh straight game. He grabbed two New York aerials.

Linemen Are Top Picks By Browns

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Cleveland Browns selected 22 players in the annual National Football League draft completed Sunday, concentrating heaviest on interior linemen.

Cleveland's first choice was Jim Garcia, 6-foot-4, 240-pound defensive tackle from Purdue, who can also play defensive end. Coach Blanton Collier said if the Browns sign Garcia he'll get a tryout at end, where the Browns were shorthanded this season.

Of the 22 picks, seven are "red shirts," meaning they still have one year of college eligibility.

In the draft, which began Saturday afternoon and lasted 27 hours and 10 minutes, the Browns picked three quarterbacks, one receiver, nine interior linemen, three linebackers and three defensive backs.

Two of the quarterbacks are "red shirts", Gary Lane of Missouri and Pat Screen of Louisiana State. The other flinger is Dan Simrell of Toledo University.

Two Browns picks will be in the Rose Bowl Jan. 1 for Michigan — defensive tackle Arnold Simkus and fullback Mel Anthony.

The Browns were the 13th team to pick in the draft because of their high won - loss record, 9-2-1, first in the Eastern Division. Garcia was the 17th player to be chosen.

Cleveland had traded its first round choice to San Francisco, but had obtained one draft choice from Los Angeles and two from Chicago in the 20 rounds of choosing top college talent.

Defensive tackle Walter Johnson, of Los Angeles State, was drafted third and became the first of the new men to sign a contract.

Twins' Oliva Captures Rookie Of Year Honors

By LEW FERGUSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

MINNEAPOLIS-ST. PAUL (AP) — Tony Oliva, the 1964 American League Rookie of the Year, came within an eyelash of returning to his native Cuba a few weeks after he reached this country in 1961.

If he had, he might be swinging at pitches thrown by Fidel Castro instead of being a league batting champion and one of the hottest baseball properties in the United States.

Oliva came to American in the spring of 1961, using his brother's passport to sneak out of Cuba.

He went to a Minnesota Twins' tryout camp in Florida, but was not kept by the Twins.

Disheartened and not knowing where to go, he decided he had best go back home to his family in Cuba.

But first the gangling 19-year-old went to Charlotte, N.C., to visit a fellow Cuban. He tried out with the Hornets — then of the Sally League.

The rest is in the record books. Oliva went to Wytheville in the Appalachian Rookie League, where he hit .410 to lead all baseball. In 1962 he had a .350 mark at Charlotte, barely missing the league championship, and in 1963 he hit .304 after a horrible start at Dallas-Fort Worth in the Pacific Coast League.

Oliva led the A. L. in 1964 with a .323 mark, and had 32 home runs and 95 runs batted in.

Named with Oliva was Richie Allen, selected as National League Rookie of the Year.

Allen hit .318 for Philadelphia.

Rose Bowl Group Overlooks S. Cal

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The only winer in the Southern California-Notre Dame game was the Oregon State Beavers, and they weren't even there.

The only winner in the Southern California-Notre California and named the West Coast representative in the Rose Bowl Saturday just a few hours after the Trojans had turned in the upset of the year in a brilliant, 20-17 come-from-behind triumph over Notre Dame, the nation's top-ranked college football team.

"One of the rankest injustices ever perpetrated in the field of intercollegiate athletics," stormed Southern Californis Athletic Director Jess Hill.

The stunning upset, of course, put Notre Dame's No. 1 standing in great jeopardy and — for a couple of hours—it appeared that Southern Cal had made its way into the Rose Bowl. But their victory celebration turned into a gloomy affair when the Pacific Athletic Conference faculty representatives — who had held off voting until after the game—voted Oregon State into the big bowl against Michigan.

Both Oregon State and Southern California had 3-1 conference records. The Beavers were 8-2 over-all. Southern Cal finished 7-3.

"I hope Oregon State does a real fine job," said Southern Cal Coach John McKay. "It is a well-coached team and I hope it justifies the conference decision that they are better than we are."

Southern Cal's Craig Fertig was the chief factor in the amazing upset of the Irish, who had won nine straight under new coach Ara Parseghina.

Trailing 17-0 at half, the Trojans got one touchdown in the third period, cut it to 17-13 on a 22-yard Fertig touchdown pass and won it in the fourth quarter with less than two minutes to go on another Fertig touchdown toss.

Georgia stopped Georgia Tech 7-0 and immediately accepted the Sun Bowl bid in another major game on the last full weekend of the college football season.

Army, meanwhile, finally broke the five-year Navy jinx and edged the Middies 11-8 on Barry Nickerson's 20-yard, fourth-quarter field goal.

Cleveland's scrambling defense has tied Jimmy Brown in the scoring column and has moved the Browns to within one game of playing Baltimore for the National Football League championship.

The defense scored three touchdowns in the first half Sunday, triggering Cleveland to a 38-24 victory over Philadelphia. A Cleveland triumph or a tie against St. Louis next Sunday would give the Browns their first Eastern Conference Crown since 1957.

Brown, the league's leading rusher, needed one touchdown to tie Don Hutson's NFL career record of 105 but failed to get it. That left him with eight for the season, the same number the defense now has tallied.

The Browns barely had finished their warmups when they had their first touchdown.

Philadelphia's Tim Brown bobbled the opening kickoff on his 14-yard line, and the ball bounced back into the end zone where Roger Shoals fell on it 18 seconds after the start of the game.

In the second quarter, rookie Sid Williams burst through the Eagle line and blocked Sam Baker's punt at the two. He then fell on the ball in the end zone for Cleveland's second touchdown.

In other games, St. Louis nipped Pittsburgh 21-20, Baltimore defeated San Francisco 14-3, Green Bay walloped Dallas 45-21, Minnesota whipped Los Angeles 34-13 and Washington dumped New York 36-21.

St. Louis, trailing 20-7 in the fourth quarter, halted a 13-game losing streak in Pittsburgh, winning its first game there since 1948.

Pat Fischer climaxed the Cardinals' comeback by racing 49 yards with John Henry Johnson's fumble late in the period.

Baltimore, which clinched the Western title last week, won its 11th straight game, and Lenny Moore tallied a touchdown in his 15th consecutive contest. Moore smashed across from the two after Lou Michaels had recovered John Brodie's fumble on the previous play.

Henry Jordan ran 60 yards with a fumble, and Lionel Aldridge scored from 29 yards out with a loose ball for two Green Bay touchdowns. Bart Starr passed for three others and scored a fourth himself. Dallas never led in the game.

Minnesota built a commanding 17-3 lead in the first half against the Rams. Fran Tarkenton threw touchdown passes of 15 yards to Paul Flatley and 13 yards to Bill Brown while Fred Cox booted a 16-yard field goal.

Washington's Sonny Jurgensen increased his league-leading touchdown pass total to 24 with four against the Giants, two to Bobby Mitchell. Rookie Paul Krause set a league record by intercepting at least one pass in his seventh straight game. He grabbed two New York aerials.

Linemen Are Top Picks By Browns

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Cleveland Browns selected 22 players in the annual National Football League draft completed Sunday, concentrating heaviest on interior linemen.

Cleveland's first choice was Jim Garcia, 6-foot-4, 240-pound defensive tackle from Purdue, who can also play defensive end. Coach Blanton Collier said if the Browns sign Garcia he'll get a tryout at end, where the Browns were shorthanded this season.

Of the 22 picks, seven are "red shirts," meaning they still have one year of college eligibility.

In the draft, which began Saturday afternoon and lasted 27 hours and 10 minutes, the Browns picked three quarterbacks, one receiver, nine interior linemen, three linebackers and three defensive backs.

Two of the quarterbacks are "red shirts", Gary Lane of Missouri and Pat Screen of Louisiana State. The other flinger is Dan Simrell of Toledo University.

Two Browns picks will be in the Rose Bowl Jan. 1 for Michigan — defensive tackle Arnold Simkus and fullback Mel Anthony.

The Browns were the 13th team to pick in the draft because of their high won - loss record, 9-2-1, first in the Eastern Division. Garcia was the 17th player to be chosen.

Cleveland had traded its first round choice to San Francisco, but had obtained one draft choice from Los Angeles and two from Chicago in the 20 rounds of choosing top college talent.

Defensive tackle Walter Johnson, of Los Angeles State, was drafted third and became the first of the new men to sign a contract.

Twins' Oliva Captures Rookie Of Year Honors

By LEW FERGUSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

MINNEAPOLIS-ST. PAUL (AP) — Tony Oliva, the 1964 American League Rookie of the Year, came within an eyelash of returning to his native Cuba a few weeks after he reached this country in 1961.

If he had, he might be swinging at pitches thrown by Fidel Castro instead of being a league batting champion and one of the hottest baseball properties in the United States.

Oliva came to American in the spring of 1961, using his brother's passport to sneak out of Cuba.

He went to a Minnesota Twins' tryout camp in Florida, but was not kept by the Twins.

Disheartened and not knowing where to go, he decided he had best go back home to his family in Cuba.

But first the gangling 19-year-old went to Charlotte, N.C., to visit a fellow Cuban. He tried out with the Hornets — then of the Sally League.

The rest is in the record books. Oliva went to Wytheville in the Appalachian Rookie League, where he hit .410 to lead all baseball. In 1962 he had a .350 mark at Charlotte, barely missing the league championship, and in 1963 he hit .304 after a horrible start at Dallas-Fort Worth in the Pacific Coast League.

Oliva led the A. L. in 1964 with a .323 mark, and had 32 home runs and 95 runs batted in.

Named with Oliva was Richie Allen, selected as National League Rookie of the Year.

Allen hit .318 for Philadelphia.

Rose Bowl Group Overlooks S. Cal

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The only winer in the Southern California-Notre Dame game was the Oregon State Beavers, and they weren't even there.

The only winner in the Southern California-Notre California and named the West Coast representative in the Rose Bowl Saturday just a few hours after the Trojans had turned in the upset of the year in a brilliant, 20-17 come-from-behind triumph over Notre Dame, the nation's top-ranked college football team.

"One of the rankest injustices ever perpetrated in the field of intercollegiate athletics," stormed Southern Californis Athletic Director Jess Hill.

The stunning upset, of course, put Notre Dame's No. 1 standing in great jeopardy and — for a couple of hours—it appeared that Southern Cal had made its way into the Rose Bowl. But their victory celebration turned into a gloomy affair when the Pacific Athletic Conference faculty representatives — who had held off voting until after the game—voted Oregon State into the big bowl against Michigan.

Both Oregon State and Southern California had 3-1 conference records. The Beavers were 8-2 over-all. Southern Cal finished 7-3.

"I hope Oregon State does a real fine job," said Southern Cal Coach John McKay. "It is a well-coached team and I hope it justifies the conference decision that they are better than we are."

Southern Cal's Craig Fertig was the chief factor in the amazing upset of the Irish, who had won nine straight under new coach Ara Parseghina.

Trailing 17-0 at half, the Trojans got one touchdown in the third period, cut it to 17-13 on a 22-yard Fertig touchdown pass and won it in the fourth quarter with less than two minutes to go on another Fertig touchdown toss.

Georgia stopped Georgia Tech 7-0 and immediately accepted the Sun Bowl bid in another major game on the last full weekend of the college football season.

Army, meanwhile, finally broke the five-year Navy jinx and edged the Middies 11-8 on Barry Nickerson's 20-yard, fourth-quarter field goal.

College Stars Wait Offers As Pro Grid Loops Battle

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The battle lines are drawn and the $5-million war is on between the National Football League and the American League for Dick Butkus, Gale Sayers, Steve DeLong, Jack Snow, Joe Namath and the other prize collegians drafted over the weekend.

With 22 clubs involved—14 in the NFL and eight in the AFL—backed by television millions, it is not unreasonable to expect that each will go for $250,000 to sign the campus heroes.

The NFL struggled from 9 a.m. Saturday morning until 12:10 p.m. Sunday in a record 27 - hour, 10 - minute draft that covered 20 rounds and 280 players. Most of the same men were picked by the AFL in their 16-hour, 40-minute draft that ran from 8 a.m. Saturday to 12:40 a.m. Sunday.

The entire draft was conducted by telephone with a club representative in New York taking instructions from the home office.

Butkus, the fine linebacker from Illinois, can sift out offers from the Chicago Bears of the NFL and the Denver Broncs of the AFL. DeLong, the 243-pound Tennessee lineman, was a first-round pick of the Bears and San Diego. Sayers, Kansas back, is a prize for the Bears or Kansas City. Elkins, the Baylor pass catcher, is up for grabs between Houston and the Green Bay Packers.

Namath, selected on the first round by the St. Louis Cards and New York Jets, can't sign until after the Orange Bowl game with Texas. Snow, the batterymate of Notre Dame's John Huarte, was Minnesota's No. 1 pick and San Diego's seventh.

Oakland signed Harry Schuh, Memphis State tackle, its first-round pick and Buffalo got its No. 1 draft, Jim Davidson, Ohio State tackle.

Detroit grabbed two first-round AFL picks, signing both Tom Nowatzke, Indiana fullback, and Jerry Rush, Michigan State tackle. The Jets lost Nowatzke and Boston had picked Rush.

The New York Giants, desperate for a running back, passed up Butkus and took Tucker Frederickson, Auburn back, as the NFL's No. 1 selection. The Giants signed him and also drafted Chuck Mercein, Yale fullback, Bob Timberlake, quarterback of Michigan's Rose Bowl team; and Henry Carr, the Olympic sprint champion from Arizona State.

In addition to Frederickson, other first-round NFL choices signed were Clarence Williams, Washington halfback and defensive ace (Los Angeles) and Mike Curtis, Duke fullback and linebacker (Baltimore).

Craig Morton, the California quarterback who has been called the best pro prospect in the nation, was drafted first by the Dallas Cowboys but didn't go until the 10th round in the AFL when Oakland picked him. Huarte, the Heisman Trophy winner, was selected No. 2 by the Jets and in the sixth round by Philadelphia's Joe Kuharich, an ex-Notre Dame coach.

Among the signings were Tom Myers, Northwestern quarterback by Detroit; Archie Sutton, Illinois tackle, by Minnesota; Vern Biggs, Jackson State defensive end by the Jets; Gus Otto, Missouri fullback, and Rich Zecker, Utah State tackle, both by Oakland.

Canton Wins Crown, Nets Playoff Spot

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Canton Bulldogs edged out the Charleston Rockets by a game on the final day of the regular season to win the United Football League's Western Division title and the right to play Indianapolis, Eastern Division kings, for the league championship.

The Bulldogs, who went in the final week tied with the Rockets at 11-2, crushed Joliet, 49-7, Sunday after Toledo's defense refused to budge Thursday and the Tornadoes beat Charleston, 10-3.

Indianapolis' Warriors whipped Grand Rapids, 14-10, Sunday while Wheeling clinched second place in the Eastern Division by downing Quebec, 47-21.

Canton will play the Warriors for the championship at Indianapolis Saturday.

Toledo stopped two fourth-quarter Charleston drives within five yards of the goal and the Rockets were held without a touchdown for the first time this season.

Joliet's Explorers finished the season with an 0-14 record as Canton's John Jacobs plunged for one touchdown and threw touchdown strikes of seven yards to George Potts and 27 yards to John Drew. The Bulldogs had a 42-0 halftime bulge.

Boxer Shot Fleeing Police, Hopes For Title Bout Dim

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Boxer Cleveland Williams lay in a hospital today critically wounded by a bullet, his hopes for a crack at the heavyweight title in January shattered.

The Big Cat, as he was known in the fight world, underwent nearly six hours of surgery Sunday morning for the removal of a .357 magnum bullet fired into his lower abdomen by a state highway patrolman.

Williams, the world's No. 2 heavyweight challenger, was shot by Patrolman Dale E. Witten, 36, who said Williams struck him and tried to flee after the fighter was arrested on suspicion of driving while intoxicated.

Officers later filed charges of driving while intoxicated and aggravated assault on a peace officer against Williams.

Hugh Benbow, Williams manager and co-owner of his contract, said the injury would cost at least $1 million in lost earnings.

And Benbow, who described Witten's account of the incident as inconsistent with Williams' reputation of being friendly with all police officers, said he would demand a full investigation.

The surgery on 31-year-old Williams involved the removal of a small section of intestine. A surgeon said, however, the wound would not end Williams' boxing career.

Williams was to fight for the World Boxing Association's world heavyweight title in January, probably in Houston. The arrangements were to be made here Wednesday.

A highway patrol report of the struggle said Williams, after he had been shot, continued to struggle with Witten for the pistol and attempted to point it at the officer's head.

The report said Witten had stopped Williams for possible drunken driving. It said there were two women in the car, along with Williams and Warner Nedd Jr., 33, who was also charged with drunkeness. The report said the two women were sober.

Phillies Get Dick Stuart From Boston

HOUSTON (AP) — The Philadelphia Phillies, getting more punch for their offense at the risk of getting punchier on defense, have acquired first baseman Dick Stuart from the Boston Red Sox for pitcher Dennis Benett.

"We now have as tough a 1-2-3 punch as any club in the National League," said Philadelphia Manager Gene Mauch.

"We had to build up our pitching staff," said Red Sox General Manager Mike Higgns.

The Phils and Red Sox pulled the first inter-league trade of the year Sunday on the opening day of the winter baseball meetings.

Mauch said Stuart will hit behind Richie Allen and Johnny Callison.

"I'll match those three against any other three in the league," Mauch said.

Bennett, 25, had a 12-14 record and a 3.68 earned-run average last season. His three-year major league record is 30-28.

When Johnny Pesky was dropped as manager of the Boston Red Sox three of his coaches went. They were Bob Turley, Al Lakeman and Harry Malmberg. Third base coach Billy Herman became manager.

College Stars Wait Offers As Pro Grid Loops Battle

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The battle lines are drawn and the $5-million war is on between the National Football League and the American League for Dick Butkus, Gale Sayers, Steve DeLong, Jack Snow, Joe Namath and the other prize collegians drafted over the weekend.

With 22 clubs involved—14 in the NFL and eight in the AFL—backed by television millions, it is not unreasonable to expect that each will go for $250,000 to sign the campus heroes.

The NFL struggled from 9 a.m. Saturday morning until 12:10 p.m. Sunday in a record 27 - hour, 10 - minute draft that covered 20 rounds and 280 players. Most of the same men were picked by the AFL in their 16-hour, 40-minute draft that ran from 8 a.m. Saturday to 12:40 a.m. Sunday.

The entire draft was conducted by telephone with a club representative in New York taking instructions from the home office.

Butkus, the fine linebacker from Illinois, can sift out offers from the Chicago Bears of the NFL and the Denver Broncs of the AFL. DeLong, the 243-pound Tennessee lineman, was a first-round pick of the Bears and San Diego. Sayers, Kansas back, is a prize for the Bears or Kansas City. Elkins, the Baylor pass catcher, is up for grabs between Houston and the Green Bay Packers.

Namath, selected on the first round by the St. Louis Cards and New York Jets, can't sign until after the Orange Bowl game with Texas. Snow, the batterymate of Notre Dame's John Huarte, was Minnesota's No. 1 pick and San Diego's seventh.

Oakland signed Harry Schuh, Memphis State tackle, its first-round pick and Buffalo got its No. 1 draft, Jim Davidson, Ohio State tackle.

Detroit grabbed two first-round AFL picks, signing both Tom Nowatzke, Indiana fullback, and Jerry Rush, Michigan State tackle. The Jets lost Nowatzke and Boston had picked Rush.

The New York Giants, desperate for a running back, passed up Butkus and took Tucker Frederickson, Auburn back, as the NFL's No. 1 selection. The Giants signed him and also drafted Chuck Mercein, Yale fullback, Bob Timberlake, quarterback of Michigan's Rose Bowl team; and Henry Carr, the Olympic sprint champion from Arizona State.

In addition to Frederickson, other first-round NFL choices signed were Clarence Williams, Washington halfback and defensive ace (Los Angeles) and Mike Curtis, Duke fullback and linebacker (Baltimore).

Craig Morton, the California quarterback who has been called the best pro prospect in the nation, was drafted first by the Dallas Cowboys but didn't go until the 10th round in the AFL when Oakland picked him. Huarte, the Heisman Trophy winner, was selected No. 2 by the Jets and in the sixth round by Philadelphia's Joe Kuharich, an ex-Notre Dame coach.

Among the signings were Tom Myers, Northwestern quarterback by Detroit; Archie Sutton, Illinois tackle, by Minnesota; Vern Biggs, Jackson State defensive end by the Jets; Gus Otto, Missouri fullback, and Rich Zecker, Utah State tackle, both by Oakland.

Boxer Shot Fleeing Police, Hopes For Title Bout Dim

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Boxer Cleveland Williams lay in a hospital today critically wounded by a bullet, his hopes for a crack at the heavyweight title in January shattered.

The Big Cat, as he was known in the fight world, underwent nearly six hours of surgery Sunday morning for the removal of a .357 magnum bullet fired into his lower abdomen by a state highway patrolman.

Williams, the world's No. 2 heavyweight challenger, was shot by Patrolman Dale E. Witten, 36, who said Williams struck him and tried to flee after the fighter was arrested on suspicion of driving while intoxicated.

Officers later filed charges of driving while intoxicated and aggravated assault on a peace officer against Williams.

Hugh Benbow, Williams manager and co-owner of his contract, said the injury would cost at least $1 million in lost earnings.

And Benbow, who described Witten's account of the incident as inconsistent with Williams' reputation of being friendly with all police officers, said he would demand a full investigation.

The surgery on 31-year-old Williams involved the removal of a small section of intestine. A surgeon said, however, the wound would not end Williams' boxing career.

Williams was to fight for the World Boxing Association's world heavyweight title in January, probably in Houston. The arrangements were to be made here Wednesday.

A highway patrol report of the struggle said Williams, after he had been shot, continued to struggle with Witten for the pistol and attempted to point it at the officer's head.

The report said Witten had stopped Williams for possible drunken driving. It said there were two women in the car, along with Williams and Warner Nedd Jr., 33, who was also charged with drunkeness. The report said the two women were sober.

Canton Wins Crown, Nets Playoff Spot

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Canton Bulldogs edged out the Charleston Rockets by a game on the final day of the regular season to win the United Football League's Western Division title and the right to play Indianapolis, Eastern Division kings, for the league championship.

The Bulldogs, who went in the final week tied with the Rockets at 11-2, crushed Joliet, 49-7, Sunday after Toledo's defense refused to budge Thursday and the Tornadoes beat Charleston, 10-3.

Indianapolis' Warriors whipped Grand Rapids, 14-10, Sunday while Wheeling clinched second place in the Eastern Division by downing Quebec, 47-21.

Canton will play the Warriors for the championship at Indianapolis Saturday.

Toledo stopped two fourth-quarter Charleston drives within five yards of the goal and the Rockets were held without a touchdown for the first time this season.

Joliet's Explorers finished the season with an 0-14 record as Canton's John Jacobs plunged for one touchdown and threw touchdown strikes of seven yards to George Potts and 27 yards to John Drew. The Bulldogs had a 42-0 halftime bulge.

Labor Issues Put Stress On Steel's Users

CLEVELAND (AP)—The approaching labor contract negotiations in the nation's steel industry are putting pressure on steel users to boost their stockpiles starting in December, Steel Magazine said today.

Walter J. Campbell, editor of the national metalworking weekly, predicted 1965 will be a "rough, tough bargaining year." He declared that the outline of a pattern—"settle first, strike later"—can be seen in the recent auto industry settlements.

Users will try to raise their inventories next month and accelerate their stockpiling after the first of the year, Steel said. Two reasons the publication cited for the buildup were:

1. "The power struggle within the United Steelworkers could delay a contract settlement and precipitate a strike after April 30.

2. "If the cost of the steel labor settlement approaches that of the auto industry pact, steelmakers will be under heavy pressure to raise prices."

In reviewing the bargaining picture ahead, Campbell wrote that further development of the pattern is noted in "inside" battles now shaping up in other big unions. He referred to the attempt of I. W. Abel, USW secretary-treasurer, to unseat USW President David J. McDonald in a Feb. 9 election.

"The surge of the insurgency stems from the belief of local chieftains that national leadership has become too far removed from the rank and file," said Campbell.

"Whether or not the rebels are successful, the effect of their insurgency will be more militancy at the bargaining tables."

Ozzie's Naive Look Is Pure Camouflage

Ozzie Nelson says he never will forget the first day he turned out for football practice at Rutgers University in the mid - '20s. "I was there on a football scholarship, and at least a hundred guys were on that field. I said to myself, 'How are they ever going to find me?' "

Hal Humphrey

Ozzie was found all right, became varsity quarterback for three years and nobody has been able to lose him since then.

-:-

ACTUALLY, Oswald George Nelson is a fraud, a likable one, but nonetheless a fraud. Today he still acts as if his success were a mystery to him and adopts a wide-eyed "Who, me?" attitude toward anyone naive enough to ask Ozzie how he did it.

Except for Ed Sullivan, Jack Benny and Red Skelton, no one has been on TV longer (unless you want to get technical and count "Meet the Press" and the "What's My Line?" Bobbsey Twins, Arlene Francis and Dorothy Kilgallen).

Even on the set where "Ozzie and Harriet" is being filmed for its 13th TV season he will timorously inquire of his cameraman, "Don't you think it might be better if we took another reaction shot here?"

THE CAMERAMAN may not think so, but he would rather Indian wrestle Y. A. Tittle, the iron man of football fame, than budge Ozzie from an opinion about how his show should be shot.

Invariably Ozzie is right, as the record shows. "Ozzie and Harriet" usually nests comfortably in the upper third of the Nielsen rating list.

The ABC network felt secure enough with Ozzie's judgment to just sign another five-year play-or-pay contract. That is, Ozzie will get paid whether ABC runs his show or not for the next five years.

"Somebody showed me a Nielsen rating on our show eight years ago, and I haven't looked at one since," Ozzie says in a tone of bewilderment, as if all the mysteries of TV were beyond him.

"OZZIE AND HARRIET" show had been on radio several years when TV began enveloping the whole country.

One day Ozzie said to his wife, "You know, this TV is going to require a whole group of new people, and somebody will figure out a way to film a show every week like a movie."

Six years later Harriet reminded Ozzie of that conversation, then added, "And see who it turned out to be!"

After 29 years of living with Ozzie, it isn't likely that she doubted for one minute who those "new people" on TV would be.

It probably wasn't pure accident that the Nelson family made their first movie about that time at Universal Pictures.

"Maybe you could say it turned out to be a sort of pilot for our TV series later," Ozzie says, guardedly. "Rock Hudson was in it, and I remember trying to get Marilyn Monroe. Of course, she had only done bit parts up to that time."

MISS MONROE must have been extremely unavailable, because Ozzie doesn't give up easily. Elder son David is amused when people ask him who eventually will replace Joe Flynn as his boss in the law office.

Flynn left the Nelson series more than a year ago to join "McHale's Navy," and Ozzie got around it by having writers refer to Flynn's being "on vacation" whenever an episode calls for the law office.

"Dad isn't going to replace Joe, I don't think," said David. "He still figures he'll get him back. Dad is not one to rush things."

Of all the new shows on TV this season Ozzie sees "Gomer Pyle" as one of the best, probably because Gomer in many ways is the same naive, sensitive soul who he'd like us all to believe he is.

WHEN KNIGHTS WERE BOLD. Jousting is getting to be an "in" thing at Somerset, England. Armored men and horses run at each other, re-creating the good old days when knighthood was in flower. Cheerio.

Medicare Action Aired At Doctors Florida Meeting

BAL HARBOUR, Fla. (AP) — The American Medical Association meets today to try to cope with an old enemy, medicare, and an old fear, possible federal entry into the doctor-patient relationship.

Three resolutions are reported pending before the AMA's legislative body, the House of Delegates, suggesting compromises in the problem of providing medical care for those who have difficulty paying for it.

The resolutions, being offered by delegations from Michigan, California and the District of Columbia, probably will be debated behind closed doors in committee sessions.

The meeting comes against a backdrop of observations that medicare in some form has its best chance of passing the U.S. Congress this year.

If the medicare bill — to provide medical insurance for the elderly through Social Security — passes, it will mean the loss of a long fight for the AMA.

Officially, the AMA stand has been this:

'Personal medical care is primarily the responsibility of the individual. When he is unable to provide this care for himself, the responsibility should properly pass to his family, the community, the county, the state, and only when all these fail, to the federal government, and then only in conjunction with the other levels of government in the above order.

Turncoat Jailed For Fourth Time

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Accused of violating probation, Korean War turncoat Lowell D. Skinner faces a possible prison sentence of one to five years for his fourth arrest since returning from Red China in August 1963.

Summit County sheriff's deputies picked up the 34-year-old ex-corporal at his sister's home Sunday. They acted on a request from his probation officer, Richard W. Mulhearn.

Mulhearn said Skinner telephoned him Saturday night, complaining he had been beaten and that Skinner had been drinking, a violation.

Skinner, who lived in Red China for 10 years after refusing repatriation as a prisoner of war, had been free on $100 bond since Oct. 28, when he was charged with abusing a policeman. A hearing is scheduled Dec. 23 on that charge, which stems from an incident of malicious destruction of property last month.

Mulhearn said he may recommend that Skinner be sent to Lima State Hospital for psychiatric examination.

Skinner was put on two years' probation after firing a pistol at two teen-age boys in November 1963. He was arrested for assault and battery in September 1963. An earlier battery charge was dismissed.

California is the leading state in the production of airplanes and airplane parts.

Snow Blamed In Auto Crash

A snow-covered pavement was blamed for an auto mishap at 7 a. m. today on the Pennsylvania Ave. "Hill Rd."

The collision involved an eastbound car operated by Kenneth Lantz, 50, of 556 Indiana Ave., Chester, and a westbound car driven by Gary D. Rhodes, 26, of 1236 Pennsylvania Ave.

Both drivers said they were traveling about 15 to 20 miles an hour when Rhodes' two-door crossed over and struck Lantz' auto.

Rhodes was cited by Patrolman W. A. Devon for speed in excess of road conditions. He will be given a hearing at 9 a. m. Tuesday in Municipal Court.

An unidentified motorist who changed his mind was blamed for a one-car mishap at W. 6th and Market Sts. at 6:35 a. m. today.

Dale L. Rice, 39, of 942 Dresden Ave. was headed south and two cars were in the center lane waiting to turn from Dresden Ave. onto 6th St.

4 At High School Attend Sessions

Three East Liverpool High School students and Charles DeJulius, driver training instructor, attended the ninth annual Ohio Youth Traffic Safety conference Saturday and Sunday at Columbus.

The delegates were Blaine Barrett, county voting delegate; Toni Yager, school voting delegate, and Linda Weyand, discussion leader.

Attending from East Palestine High School were James G. Nesbitt, driver training instructor, Marjorie Martin, Paul Brittain, Thirl Norton and Bonnie Ehrenberg.

Jon Brenner of Worthington High School was elected state chairman.

The convention adopted 16 resolutions to be presented to the State Legislature. One asks that youthful drivers be treated as adults on the highways and in courts.

By HAL HUMPHREY

Ozzie's Naive Look Is Pure Camouflage

Ozzie Nelson says he never will forget the first day he turned out for football practice at Rutgers University in the mid - '20s. "I was there on a football scholarship, and at least a hundred guys were on that field. I said to myself, 'How are they ever going to find me?' "

Hal Humphrey

Ozzie was found all right, became varsity quarterback for three years and nobody has been able to lose him since then.

-:-

ACTUALLY, Oswald George Nelson is a fraud, a likable one, but nonetheless a fraud. Today he still acts as if his success were a mystery to him and adopts a wide-eyed "Who, me?" attitude toward anyone naive enough to ask Ozzie how he did it.

Except for Ed Sullivan, Jack Benny and Red Skelton, no one has been on TV longer (unless you want to get technical and count "Meet the Press" and the "What's My Line?" Bobbsey Twins, Arlene Francis and Dorothy Kilgallen).

Even on the set where "Ozzie and Harriet" is being filmed for its 13th TV season he will timorously inquire of his cameraman, "Don't you think it might be better if we took another reaction shot here?"

THE CAMERAMAN may not think so, but he would rather Indian wrestle Y. A. Tittle, the iron man of football fame, than budge Ozzie from an opinion about how his show should be shot.

Invariably Ozzie is right, as the record shows. "Ozzie and Harriet" usually nests comfortably in the upper third of the Nielsen rating list.

The ABC network felt secure enough with Ozzie's judgment to just sign another five-year play-or-pay contract. That is, Ozzie will get paid whether ABC runs his show or not for the next five years.

"Somebody showed me a Nielsen rating on our show eight years ago, and I haven't looked at one since," Ozzie says in a tone of bewilderment, as if all the mysteries of TV were beyond him.

"OZZIE AND HARRIET" show had been on radio several years when TV began enveloping the whole country.

One day Ozzie said to his wife, "You know, this TV is going to require a whole group of new people, and somebody will figure out a way to film a show every week like a movie."

Six years later Harriet reminded Ozzie of that conversation, then added, "And see who it turned out to be!"

After 29 years of living with Ozzie, it isn't likely that she doubted for one minute who those "new people" on TV would be.

It probably wasn't pure accident that the Nelson family made their first movie about that time at Universal Pictures.

"Maybe you could say it turned out to be a sort of pilot for our TV series later," Ozzie says, guardedly. "Rock Hudson was in it, and I remember trying to get Marilyn Monroe. Of course, she had only done bit parts up to that time."

MISS MONROE must have been extremely unavailable, because Ozzie doesn't give up easily. Elder son David is amused when people ask him who eventually will replace Joe Flynn as his boss in the law office.

Flynn left the Nelson series more than a year ago to join "McHale's Navy," and Ozzie got around it by having writers refer to Flynn's being "on vacation" whenever an episode calls for the law office.

"Dad isn't going to replace Joe, I don't think," said David. "He still figures he'll get him back. Dad is not one to rush things."

Of all the new shows on TV this season Ozzie sees "Gomer Pyle" as one of the best, probably because Gomer in many ways is the same naive, sensitive soul who he'd like us all to believe he is.

WHEN KNIGHTS WERE BOLD. Jousting is getting to be an "in" thing at Somerset, England. Armored men and horses run at each other, re-creating the good old days when knighthood was in flower. Cheerio.

Medicare Action Aired At Doctors Florida Meeting

BAL HARBOUR, Fla. (AP) — The American Medical Association meets today to try to cope with an old enemy, medicare, and an old fear, possible federal entry into the doctor-patient relationship.

Three resolutions are reported pending before the AMA's legislative body, the House of Delegates, suggesting compromises in the problem of providing medical care for those who have difficulty paying for it.

The resolutions, being offered by delegations from Michigan, California and the District of Columbia, probably will be debated behind closed doors in committee sessions.

The meeting comes against a backdrop of observations that medicare in some form has its best chance of passing the U.S. Congress this year.

If the medicare bill — to provide medical insurance for the elderly through Social Security — passes, it will mean the loss of a long fight for the AMA.

Officially, the AMA stand has been this:

'Personal medical care is primarily the responsibility of the individual. When he is unable to provide this care for himself, the responsibility should properly pass to his family, the community, the county, the state, and only when all these fail, to the federal government, and then only in conjunction with the other levels of government in the above order.

Turncoat Jailed For Fourth Time

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Accused of violating probation, Korean War turncoat Lowell D. Skinner faces a possible prison sentence of one to five years for his fourth arrest since returning from Red China in August 1963.

Summit County sheriff's deputies picked up the 34-year-old ex-corporal at his sister's home Sunday. They acted on a request from his probation officer, Richard W. Mulhearn.

Mulhearn said Skinner telephoned him Saturday night, complaining he had been beaten and that Skinner had been drinking, a violation.

Skinner, who lived in Red China for 10 years after refusing repatriation as a prisoner of war, had been free on $100 bond since Oct. 28, when he was charged with abusing a policeman. A hearing is scheduled Dec. 23 on that charge, which stems from an incident of malicious destruction of property last month.

Mulhearn said he may recommend that Skinner be sent to Lima State Hospital for psychiatric examination.

Skinner was put on two years' probation after firing a pistol at two teen-age boys in November 1963. He was arrested for assault and battery in September 1963. An earlier battery charge was dismissed.

California is the leading state in the production of airplanes and airplane parts.

Snow Blamed In Auto Crash

A snow-covered pavement was blamed for an auto mishap at 7 a. m. today on the Pennsylvania Ave. "Hill Rd."

The collision involved an eastbound car operated by Kenneth Lantz, 50, of 556 Indiana Ave., Chester, and a westbound car driven by Gary D. Rhodes, 26, of 1236 Pennsylvania Ave.

Both drivers said they were traveling about 15 to 20 miles an hour when Rhodes' two-door crossed over and struck Lantz' auto.

Rhodes was cited by Patrolman W. A. Devon for speed in excess of road conditions. He will be given a hearing at 9 a. m. Tuesday in Municipal Court.

An unidentified motorist who changed his mind was blamed for a one-car mishap at W. 6th and Market Sts. at 6:35 a. m. today.

Dale L. Rice, 39, of 942 Dresden Ave. was headed south and two cars were in the center lane waiting to turn from Dresden Ave. onto 6th St.

4 At High School Attend Sessions

Three East Liverpool High School students and Charles DeJulius, driver training instructor, attended the ninth annual Ohio Youth Traffic Safety conference Saturday and Sunday at Columbus.

The delegates were Blaine Barrett, county voting delegate; Toni Yager, school voting delegate, and Linda Weyand, discussion leader.

Attending from East Palestine High School were James G. Nesbitt, driver training instructor, Marjorie Martin, Paul Brittain, Thirl Norton and Bonnie Ehrenberg.

Jon Brenner of Worthington High School was elected state chairman.

The convention adopted 16 resolutions to be presented to the State Legislature. One asks that youthful drivers be treated as adults on the highways and in courts.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q.—How can I make a better job of mending a tear in a net curtain?

A.—A coat of colorless fingernail polish applied to a tear in a net curtain, after mending it, makes a perfect finish. Press the frayed ends together until the polish dries. A curtain mended in this fashion should not be stretched after laundering, however. Iron it carefully instead, avoiding the mended spots.

Q.—How can I prevent wooden garment hangers from snagging fabrics?

A.—By giving them a coat of shellac. Allow to dry well before hanging any clothes on them. The wood won't chip or sliver if protected in this manner.

Q.—How can I deodorize the inside of my refrigerator?

A.—By washing it with soapy water containing a little baking soda.

Q.—How can I clean off smoked-up areas on a brick or stone fireplace?

A.—Cover with a paste made of concentrated ammonia and powdered pumice. Let remain on for about two hours, then scrub it off with hot water and soap, rinse with clear water, and dry.

Q.—How can I remove airplane cement from fabrics?

A.—This can be removed from all fabrics, except acetate rayon or vinyon, with acetone (fingernail polish remover). In the case of rayon, amy acetate (banana oil) is the answer.

Q.—How can I prevent my whipping bowl from slipping about on my kitchen counter while I'm whipping something up in it?

A.—Place the bowl on a folded damp cloth, and this will eliminate slippage.

Q.—How can I soften up hardened glue?

A.—By placing a few drops of vinegar in the container.

Junior Editors Quiz on MONEY

QUESTION: What is the difference between a silver certificate and a Federal Reserve note?

ANSWER: Not all bills of a certain denomination are actually alike. Look at the two simplified drawings of $1 bills in our picture. Not only is the design different but the top one is labeled "silver certificate" and the one below "Federal Reserve note." There is no difference in value; the main difference is in the way the bills are backed by the government. The silver certificate represents an equal value in actual silver which will be given to the bearer by the U.S. Treasury. All the $2 bills now being issued are silver certificates. After 1945 and until November of 1963, all $1 bills were backed by silver. When the Treasury needs extra silver for coins, it can replace $1 and $2 silver certificates by Federal Reserve notes, which is why we have $1 Federal Reserve notes in circulation now. This last kind of bill is secured by notes, bonds, securities and gold certificates in the Federal Reserve banks and these are of wide circulation. Another kind of bill in circulation is the United States note, backed by the Treasury and the credit of the government. It is a limited issue and so is not often the United States note, backed by the Treasury and the credit seen. Other types of paper money, such as gold certificates, are no longer being used.

FOR YOU TO DO: Tear out this article. See if someone in your family has a note marked United States note (with a red seal). When you get one, draw the design in the place we have left blank (3). This will help you to learn more about our currency.
